

For the accusation of this record, I lay down the 2nd–5th / 6th–20th generations (Round 1: mother's side, father's side, all the way back to Adam).

All rounds

The accusation is against a record in a line. Torah already names visitation to the third and fourth, and mercy far beyond that. The prayers go to Adam because that is where the first record entered the race.

Gen 3:15-19

The first record: seed, pain, ground, death.

3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will strike his heel. "

3:16 To the woman He said: "I will sharply increase your pain in childbirth; in pain you will bring forth children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."

3:17 And to Adam He said: "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat, cursed is the ground because of you; through toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

3:18 Both thorns and thistles it will yield for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

3:19 By the sweat of your brow you will eat your bread, until you return to the ground— because out of it were you taken. For dust you are, and to dust you shall return."

Gen 5:1-3

Adam begets in his own likeness after the fall.

5:1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in His own likeness.

5:2 Male and female He created them, and He blessed them. And in the day they were created, He called them "man."

5:3 When Adam was 130 years old, he had a son in his own likeness, after his own image; and he named him Seth.

Ex 20:5

Visiting iniquity to the third and fourth generation.

20:5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on their children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

Ex 34:7

Third and fourth; also keeping mercy for thousands.

34:7 maintaining loving devotion to a thousand generations, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin. Yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished; He will visit the iniquity of the fathers on their children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.”

Num 14:18, 31-33

Visitation; children bear the wilderness years.

14:18 ‘The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in loving devotion, forgiving iniquity and transgression. Yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished; He will visit the iniquity of the fathers upon their children to the third and fourth generation.’

14:31 But I will bring your children, whom you said would become plunder, into the land you have rejected—and they will enjoy it.

14:32 As for you, however, your bodies will fall in this wilderness.

14:33 Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and they will suffer for your unfaithfulness until the last of your bodies lies in the wilderness.

Deut 5:9-10

Same third/fourth and thousands pattern.

5:9 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on their children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

5:10 but showing loving devotion to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Deut 7:9

Mercy to a thousand generations of them that love Him.

7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who keeps His covenant of loving devotion for a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commandments.

1 Kgs 21:21-29

Judgment on Ahab’s house delayed to his son’s days.

21:21 This is what the LORD says: ‘I will bring calamity on you and consume your descendants; I will cut off from Ahab every male in Israel, both slave and free.

21:22 I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like that of Baasha son of Ahijah, because you have provoked My anger and caused Israel to sin.’

21:23 And the LORD also speaks concerning Jezebel: ‘The dogs will devour Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.’

21:24 Anyone belonging to Ahab who dies in the city will be eaten by dogs, and anyone who dies in the field will be eaten by the birds of the air.”

21:25 (Surely there was never one like Ahab, who sold himself to do evil in the sight of the LORD, incited by his wife Jezebel.

21:26 He committed the most detestable acts by going after idols, just like the Amorites whom the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.)

21:27 When Ahab heard these words, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and fasted. He lay down in sackcloth and walked around meekly.

21:28 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying:

21:29 "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the calamity during his days, but I will bring it upon his house in the days of his son."

2 Kgs 10:30

Jehu's children to the fourth generation on the throne.

10:30 Nevertheless, the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in carrying out what is right in My sight and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel."

2 Kgs 5:27

Gehazi's leprosy cleaves to his seed forever.

5:27 Therefore, the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and your descendants forever!" And as Gehazi left his presence, he was leprous—as white as snow.

Neh 9:2

Seed of Israel confess.

9:2 Those of Israelite descent separated themselves from all the foreigners, and they stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers.

Ps 79:8

Remember not against us former iniquities.

79:8 Do not hold past sins against us; let Your compassion come quickly, for we are brought low.

Ps 109:14

Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered.

109:14 May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, and the sin of his mother never be blotted out.

Isa 14:21

Prepare slaughter for children for the iniquity of their fathers.

14:21 Prepare a place to slaughter his sons for the iniquities of their forefathers. They will never rise up to possess a land or cover the earth with their cities.

Jer 32:18

Recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children.

32:18 You show loving devotion to thousands but lay the iniquity of the fathers into the laps of their children after them, O great and mighty God whose name is the LORD of Hosts,

Lam 5:7

Our fathers have sinned... we have borne their iniquities.

5:7 Our fathers sinned and are no more, but we bear their punishment.

Ezek 18:1-20

Sour grapes proverb corrected — the living soul must repent.

18:1 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18:2 “What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land of Israel: ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the teeth of the children are set on edge’?

18:3 As surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, you will no longer quote this proverb in Israel.

18:4 Behold, every soul belongs to Me; both father and son are Mine. The soul who sins is the one who will die.

18:5 Now suppose a man is righteous and does what is just and right:

18:6 He does not eat at the mountain or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor’s wife or approach a woman during her period.

18:7 He does not oppress another, but restores the pledge to the debtor. He does not commit robbery, but gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing.

18:8 He does not engage in usury or take excess interest, but he withholds his hand from iniquity and executes true justice between men.

18:9 He follows My statutes and faithfully keeps My ordinances. That man is righteous; surely he will live, declares the Lord GOD.

18:10 Now suppose that man has a violent son, who sheds blood or does any of these things,

18:11 though the father has done none of them: Indeed, the son eats at the mountain and defiles his neighbor’s wife.

18:12 He oppresses the poor and needy; he commits robbery and does not restore a pledge. He lifts his eyes to idols; he commits abominations.

18:13 He engages in usury and takes excess interest. Will this son live? He will not! Since he has committed all these abominations, he will surely die; his blood will be on his own head.

18:14 Now suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, considers them, and does not do likewise:

18:15 He does not eat at the mountain or look to the idols of the house of Israel. He does not defile his neighbor's wife.

18:16 He does not oppress another, or retain a pledge, or commit robbery. He gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with clothing.

18:17 He withholds his hand from harming the poor and takes no interest or usury. He keeps My ordinances and follows My statutes. Such a man will not die for his father's iniquity. He will surely live.

18:18 As for his father, he will die for his own iniquity, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people.

18:19 Yet you may ask, 'Why shouldn't the son bear the iniquity of his father?' Since the son has done what is just and right, carefully observing all My statutes, he will surely live.

18:20 The soul who sins is the one who will die. A son will not bear the iniquity of his father, and a father will not bear the iniquity of his son. The righteousness of the righteous man will fall upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked man will fall upon him.

Rom 5:12-21

By one man sin entered; by One Man grace.

5:12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, so also death was passed on to all men, because all sinned.

5:13 For sin was in the world before the law was given; but sin is not taken into account when there is no law.

5:14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not sin in the way that Adam transgressed. He is a pattern of the One to come.

5:15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many!

5:16 Again, the gift is not like the result of the one man's sin: The judgment that followed one sin brought condemnation, but the gift that followed many trespasses brought justification.

5:17 For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

5:18 So then, just as one trespass brought condemnation for all men, so also one act of righteousness brought justification and life for all men.

5:19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

5:20 The law came in so that the trespass would increase; but where sin increased, grace increased all the more,

5:21 so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Cor 15:21-22, 45-49

In Adam all die; in Christ all made alive.

15:21 For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man.

15:22 For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive.

15:45 So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living being"; the last Adam a life-giving spirit.

15:46 The spiritual, however, was not first, but the natural, and then the spiritual.

15:47 The first man was of the dust of the earth, the second man from heaven.

15:48 As was the earthly man, so also are those who are of the earth; and as is the heavenly man, so also are those who are of heaven.

15:49 And just as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so also shall we bear the likeness of the heavenly man.

Heb 7:9-10

Levi paid tithes in Abraham — a line present in the ancestor.

7:9 And so to speak, Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham.

7:10 For when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the loins of his ancestor.
