

Numbers

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Numbers 14:18-19

Visiting iniquity; pardon the iniquity of this people.

14:18 'The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in loving devotion, forgiving iniquity and transgression. Yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished; He will visit the iniquity of the fathers upon their children to the third and fourth generation.'

14:19 Pardon, I pray, the iniquity of this people, in keeping with the greatness of Your loving devotion, just as You have forgiven them ever since they left Egypt."

Numbers 14:31-33

Your children shall wander; they bear your whoredoms.

14:31 But I will bring your children, whom you said would become plunder, into the land you have rejected—and they will enjoy it.

14:32 As for you, however, your bodies will fall in this wilderness.

14:33 Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and they will suffer for your unfaithfulness until the last of your bodies lies in the wilderness.

Numbers 16:23-35

Korah: separate from the tents of these wicked men; households swallowed.

16:23 Then the LORD said to Moses,

16:24 "Tell the congregation to move away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram."

16:25 So Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.

16:26 And he warned the congregation, "Move away now from the tents of these wicked men. Do not touch anything that belongs to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins."

16:27 So they moved away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram. Meanwhile, Dathan and Abiram had come out and stood at the entrances to their tents with their wives and children and infants.

16:28 Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things, for it was not my own doing:

16:29 If these men die a natural death, or if they suffer the fate of all men, then the LORD has not sent me.

16:30 But if the LORD brings about something unprecedented, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them and all that belongs to them so that they go down alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt."

16:31 As soon as Moses had finished saying all this, the ground beneath them split open,

16:32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them and their households—all Korah's men and all their possessions.

16:33 They went down alive into Sheol with all they owned. The earth closed over them, and they vanished from the assembly.

16:34 At their cries, all the people of Israel who were around them fled, saying, "The earth may swallow us too!"

16:35 And fire came forth from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.

Numbers 25:1-13

Peor; Phinehas turns wrath; covenant of peace.

25:1 While Israel was staying in Shittim, the men began to indulge in sexual immorality with the daughters of Moab,

25:2 who also invited them to the sacrifices for their gods. And the people ate and bowed down to these gods.

25:3 So Israel joined in worshiping Baal of Peor, and the anger of the LORD burned against them.

25:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Take all the leaders of the people and execute them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that His fierce anger may turn away from Israel."

25:5 So Moses told the judges of Israel, "Each of you must kill all of his men who have joined in worshiping Baal of Peor."

25:6 Just then an Israelite man brought to his family a Midianite woman in the sight of Moses and the whole congregation of Israel while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

25:7 On seeing this, Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, got up from the assembly, took a spear in his hand,

25:8 followed the Israelite into his tent, and drove the spear through both of them—through the Israelite and on through the belly of the woman. So the plague against the Israelites was halted,

25:9 but those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

25:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

25:11 "Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the Israelites; for he was zealous for My sake among them, so that I did not consume the Israelites in My zeal.

25:12 Declare, therefore, that I am granting him My covenant of peace.

25:13 It will be a covenant of permanent priesthood for him and his descendants, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the Israelites."

Numbers 30:3-16

Vows bind a house; a father/husband may disannul.

30:3 And if a woman in her father's house during her youth makes a vow to the LORD or obligates herself by a pledge,
30:4 and her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand.
30:5 But if her father prohibits her on the day he hears about it, then none of the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand. The LORD will absolve her because her father has prohibited her.
30:6 If a woman marries while under a vow or rash promise by which she has bound herself,
30:7 and her husband hears of it but says nothing to her on that day, then the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand.
30:8 But if her husband prohibits her when he hears of it, he nullifies the vow that binds her or the rash promise she has made, and the LORD will absolve her.
30:9 Every vow a widow or divorced woman pledges to fulfill is binding on her.
30:10 If a woman in her husband's house has made a vow or put herself under an obligation with an oath,
30:11 and her husband hears of it but says nothing to her and does not prohibit her, then all the vows or pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand.
30:12 But if her husband nullifies them on the day he hears of them, then nothing that came from her lips, whether her vows or pledges, shall stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will absolve her.
30:13 Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow or any sworn pledge to deny herself.
30:14 But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he confirms all the vows and pledges that bind her. He has confirmed them, because he said nothing to her on the day he heard about them.
30:15 But if he nullifies them after he hears of them, then he will bear her iniquity."
30:16 These are the statutes that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the relationship between a man and his wife, and between a father and a young daughter still in his home.

Numbers 35:33-34

Blood defiles the land; it cannot be cleansed but by the blood of him that shed it.

35:33 Do not pollute the land where you live, for bloodshed pollutes the land, and no atonement can be made for the land on which the blood is shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it.
35:34 Do not defile the land where you live and where I dwell. For I, the LORD, dwell among the Israelites."
