

Ruth

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Ruth 1:16-17

Thy people shall be my people; thy God my God — a line grafted in.

1:16 But Ruth replied: “Do not urge me to leave you or to turn from following you. For wherever you go, I will go, and wherever you live, I will live; your people will be my people, and your God will be my God.

1:17 Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD punish me, and ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me.”

Ruth 4:10-22

Kinsman-redeemer raises the name of the dead upon his inheritance; genealogy to David.

4:10 Moreover, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon’s widow, as my wife, to raise up the name of the deceased through his inheritance, so that his name will not disappear from among his brothers or from the gate of his home. You are witnesses today.”

4:11 “We are witnesses,” said the elders and all the people at the gate. “May the LORD make the woman entering your home like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you be prosperous in Ephrathah and famous in Bethlehem.

4:12 And may your house become like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, because of the offspring the LORD will give you by this young woman.”

4:13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. And when he had relations with her, the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

4:14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a kinsman-redeemer. May his name become famous in Israel.

4:15 He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given him birth.”

4:16 And Naomi took the child, placed him on her lap, and became a nurse to him.

4:17 The neighbor women said, “A son has been born to Naomi,” and they named him Obed. He became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

4:18 Now these are the generations of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron,

4:19 Hezron was the father of Ram, Ram was the father of Amminadab,

4:20 Amminadab was the father of Nahshon, Nahshon was the father of Salmon,

4:21 Salmon was the father of Boaz, Boaz was the father of Obed,

4:22 Obed was the father of Jesse, and Jesse was the father of David.
