

Micah

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Micah 6:6-8

Wherewith shall I come before the LORD? Do justly, love mercy, walk humbly.

6:6 With what shall I come before the LORD when I bow before the God on high? Should I come to Him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?

6:7 Would the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I present my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

6:8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

Micah 7:18-20

Who is a God like unto Thee, that pardoneth? Mercy to Abraham, sworn to the fathers.

7:18 Who is a God like You, who pardons iniquity and passes over the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance— who does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in loving devotion?

7:19 He will again have compassion on us; He will vanquish our iniquities. You will cast out all our sins into the depths of the sea.

7:20 You will show faithfulness to Jacob and loving devotion to Abraham, as You swore to our fathers from the days of old.
