

Genesis

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Genesis 1:26-28

Image, fruitfulness, dominion — the original commission of a line.

1:26 Then God said, “Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness, to rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, and over all the earth itself and every creature that crawls upon it.”

1:27 So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

1:28 God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and every creature that crawls upon the earth.”

Genesis 3:12-19

Blame, the curse, and the first bloodline record.

3:12 And the man answered, “The woman whom You gave me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”

3:13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” “The serpent deceived me,” she replied, “and I ate.”

3:14 So the LORD God said to the serpent: “Because you have done this, cursed are you above all livestock and every beast of the field! On your belly will you go, and dust you will eat, all the days of your life.

3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will strike his heel. ”

3:16 To the woman He said: “I will sharply increase your pain in childbirth; in pain you will bring forth children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.”

3:17 And to Adam He said: “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat, cursed is the ground because of you; through toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

3:18 Both thorns and thistles it will yield for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

3:19 By the sweat of your brow you will eat your bread, until you return to the ground— because out of it were you taken. For dust you are, and to dust you shall return.”

Genesis 3:15

Seed of the woman vs seed of the serpent — conflict runs in lines.

3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed. He will crush your head, and you will strike his heel. ”

Genesis 4:8-11

Abel's blood cries from the ground; a record in the earth.

4:8 Then Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let us go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.

4:9 And the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" "I do not know!" he answered. "Am I my brother's keeper?"

4:10 "What have you done?" replied the LORD. "The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me from the ground.

4:11 Now you are cursed and banished from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

Genesis 4:23-24

Lamech multiplies violence in Cain's line.

4:23 Then Lamech said to his wives: "Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; wives of Lamech, listen to my speech. For I have slain a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me.

4:24 If Cain is avenged sevenfold, then Lamech seventy-sevenfold."

Genesis 5:1-3

Generations of Adam; likeness after the fall.

5:1 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, He made him in His own likeness.

5:2 Male and female He created them, and He blessed them. And in the day they were created, He called them "man."

5:3 When Adam was 130 years old, he had a son in his own likeness, after his own image; and he named him Seth.

Genesis 6:5-9

Imagination of the heart; Noah perfect in his generations.

6:5 Then the LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great upon the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was altogether evil all the time.

6:6 And the LORD regretted that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

6:7 So the LORD said, "I will blot out man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth—every man and beast and crawling creature and bird of the air—for I am grieved that I have made them."

6:8 Noah, however, found favor in the eyes of the LORD.

6:9 This is the account of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation; Noah walked with God.

Genesis 8:20-21

Altar after the flood; imagination still evil from youth.

8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD. And taking from every kind of clean animal and clean bird, he offered burnt offerings on the altar.

8:21 When the LORD smelled the pleasing aroma, He said in His heart, “Never again will I curse the ground because of man, even though every inclination of his heart is evil from his youth. And never again will I destroy all living creatures as I have done.

Genesis 9:8-17

Covenant with Noah and his seed after him.

9:8 Then God said to Noah and his sons with him,

9:9 “Behold, I now establish My covenant with you and your descendants after you,

9:10 and with every living creature that was with you—the birds, the livestock, and every beast of the earth—every living thing that came out of the ark.

9:11 And I establish My covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

9:12 And God said, “This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come:

9:13 I have set My rainbow in the clouds, and it will be a sign of the covenant between Me and the earth.

9:14 Whenever I form clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds,

9:15 I will remember My covenant between Me and you and every living creature of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all life.

9:16 And whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of every kind that is on the earth.”

9:17 So God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between Me and every creature on the earth.”

Genesis 11:1-9

Babel: a people united in rebellion.

11:1 Now the whole world had one language and a common form of speech.

11:2 And as people journeyed eastward, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.

11:3 And they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” So they used brick instead of stone, and tar instead of mortar.

11:4 “Come,” they said, “let us build for ourselves a city with a tower that reaches to the heavens, that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of all the earth.”

11:5 Then the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men were building.

11:6 And the LORD said, "If they have begun to do this as one people speaking the same language, then nothing they devise will be beyond them.

11:7 Come, let Us go down and confuse their language, so that they will not understand one another's speech."

11:8 So the LORD scattered them from there over the face of all the earth, and they stopped building the city.

11:9 That is why it is called Babel, for there the LORD confused the language of the whole world, and from that place the LORD scattered them over the face of all the earth.

Genesis 12:1-3

Blessing in Abraham for all families of the earth.

12:1 Then the LORD said to Abram, "Leave your country, your kindred, and your father's household, and go to the land I will show you.

12:2 I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

12:3 I will bless those who bless you and curse those who curse you; and all the families of the earth will be blessed through you. "

Genesis 12:7

To thy seed will I give this land.

12:7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "I will give this land to your offspring. " So Abram built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Genesis 15:5-18

Seed as stars; blood pieces; God cuts the covenant.

15:5 And the LORD took him outside and said, "Now look to the heavens and count the stars, if you are able." Then He told him, "So shall your offspring be."

15:6 Abram believed the LORD, and it was credited to him as righteousness.

15:7 The LORD also told him, "I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess."

15:8 But Abram replied, "Lord GOD, how can I know that I will possess it?"

15:9 And the LORD said to him, "Bring Me a heifer, a goat, and a ram, each three years old, along with a turtledove and a young pigeon."

15:10 So Abram brought all these to Him, split each of them down the middle, and laid the halves opposite each other. The birds, however, he did not cut in half.

15:11 And the birds of prey descended on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.

15:12 As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and suddenly great terror and darkness overwhelmed him.

15:13 Then the LORD said to Abram, “Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not their own, and they will be enslaved and mistreated four hundred years.

15:14 But I will judge the nation they serve as slaves, and afterward they will depart with many possessions.

15:15 You, however, will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a ripe old age.

15:16 In the fourth generation your descendants will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.”

15:17 When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, behold, a smoking firepot and a flaming torch appeared and passed between the halves of the carcasses.

15:18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I have given this land—from the river of Egypt to the great River Euphrates—

Genesis 17:7-14

Everlasting covenant with seed; household circumcision.

17:7 I will establish My covenant as an everlasting covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

17:8 And to you and your descendants I will give the land where you are residing—all the land of Canaan—as an eternal possession; and I will be their God.”

17:9 God also said to Abraham, “You must keep My covenant—you and your descendants in the generations after you.

17:10 This is My covenant with you and your descendants after you, which you are to keep: Every male among you must be circumcised.

17:11 You are to circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and this will be a sign of the covenant between Me and you.

17:12 Generation after generation, every male must be circumcised when he is eight days old, including those born in your household and those purchased from a foreigner—even those who are not your offspring.

17:13 Whether they are born in your household or purchased, they must be circumcised. My covenant in your flesh will be an everlasting covenant.

17:14 But if any male is not circumcised, he will be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant.”

Genesis 17:23-27

Abraham circumcises his whole house the same day.

17:23 On that very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his household or purchased with his money—every male among the members of Abraham’s household—and he circumcised them, just as God had told him.

17:24 So Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised,

17:25 and his son Ishmael was thirteen;

17:26 Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised on the same day.

17:27 And all the men of Abraham's household—both servants born in his household and those purchased from foreigners—were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18:17-19

Abraham will command his children and household after him.

18:17 And the LORD said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?"

18:18 Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and through him all the nations of the earth will be blessed.

18:19 For I have chosen him, so that he will command his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just, in order that the LORD may bring upon Abraham what He has promised."

Genesis 19:12-29

A household pulled out; looking back costs a life.

19:12 Then the two men said to Lot, "Do you have anyone else here—a son-in-law, your sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of here,

19:13 because we are about to destroy this place. For the outcry to the LORD against its people is so great that He has sent us to destroy it."

19:14 So Lot went out and spoke to the sons-in-law who were pledged in marriage to his daughters. "Get up," he said. "Get out of this place, for the LORD is about to destroy the city!" But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

19:15 At daybreak the angels hurried Lot along, saying, "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away in the punishment of the city."

19:16 But when Lot hesitated, the men grabbed his hand and the hands of his wife and his two daughters. And they led them safely out of the city, because of the LORD's compassion for them.

19:17 As soon as the men had brought them out, one of them said, "Run for your lives! Do not look back, and do not stop anywhere on the plain! Flee to the mountains, or you will be swept away!"

19:18 But Lot replied, "No, my lords, please!

19:19 Your servant has indeed found favor in your sight, and you have shown me great kindness by sparing my life. But I cannot run to the mountains; the disaster will overtake me, and I will die.

19:20 Look, there is a town nearby where I can flee, and it is a small place. Please let me flee there—is it not a small place? Then my life will be saved."

19:21 "Very well," he answered, "I will grant this request as well, and will not demolish the town you indicate.

19:22 Hurry! Run there quickly, for I cannot do anything until you reach it." That is why the town was called Zoar.

19:23 And by the time the sun had risen over the land, Lot had reached Zoar.

19:24 Then the LORD rained down sulfur and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah—from the LORD out of the heavens.

19:25 Thus He destroyed these cities and the entire plain, including all the inhabitants of the cities and everything that grew on the ground.

19:26 But Lot's wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

19:27 Early the next morning, Abraham got up and returned to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

19:28 He looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and all the land of the plain, and he saw the smoke rising from the land like smoke from a furnace.

19:29 So when God destroyed the cities of the plain, He remembered Abraham, and He brought Lot out of the catastrophe that destroyed the cities where he had lived.

Genesis 22:2-18

Altar, seed, and oath: in thy seed all nations blessed.

22:2 "Take your son," God said, "your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. Offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains, which I will show you."

22:3 So Abraham got up early the next morning, saddled his donkey, and took along two of his servants and his son Isaac. He split the wood for a burnt offering and set out for the place God had designated.

22:4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.

22:5 "Stay here with the donkey," Abraham told his servants. "The boy and I will go over there to worship, and then we will return to you."

22:6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac. He himself carried the fire and the sacrificial knife, and the two of them walked on together.

22:7 Then Isaac said to his father Abraham, "My father!" "Here I am, my son," he replied. "The fire and the wood are here," said Isaac, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

22:8 Abraham answered, "God Himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son." And the two walked on together.

22:9 When they arrived at the place God had designated, Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood. He bound his son Isaac and placed him on the altar, atop the wood.

22:10 Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son.

22:11 Just then the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, "Abraham, Abraham!" "Here I am," he replied.

22:12 "Do not lay a hand on the boy or do anything to him," said the angel, "for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your only son from me. "

22:13 Then Abraham looked up and saw behind him a ram in a thicket, caught by its horns. So he went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son.

22:14 And Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide. So to this day it is said, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

22:15 And the angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time,

22:16 saying, “By Myself I have sworn, declares the LORD, that because you have done this and have not withheld your only son,

22:17 I will surely bless you, and I will multiply your descendants like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the gates of their enemies.

22:18 And through your offspring all nations of the earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice.”

Genesis 26:3-5, 24

Isaac inherits because Abraham obeyed.

26:3 Stay in this land as a foreigner, and I will be with you and bless you. For I will give all these lands to you and your offspring, and I will confirm the oath that I swore to your father Abraham.

26:4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, and I will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations of the earth will be blessed,

26:5 because Abraham listened to My voice and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws.”

26:24 and that night the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of My servant Abraham.”

Genesis 27:27-40

Blessing and consequence travel in a family.

27:27 So he came near and kissed him. When Isaac smelled his clothing, he blessed him and said: “Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

27:28 May God give to you the dew of heaven and the richness of the earth— an abundance of grain and new wine.

27:29 May peoples serve you and nations bow down to you. May you be the master of your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed, and those who bless you be blessed.”

27:30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing him and Jacob had left his father’s presence, his brother Esau returned from the hunt.

27:31 He too made some tasty food, brought it to his father, and said to him, “My father, sit up and eat of your son’s game, so that you may bless me.”

27:32 But his father Isaac replied, “Who are you?” “I am Esau, your firstborn son,” he answered.

27:33 Isaac began to tremble violently and said, “Who was it, then, who hunted the game and brought it to me? Before you came in, I ate it all and blessed him—and indeed, he will be blessed!”

27:34 When Esau heard his father's words, he let out a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, "Bless me too, O my father!"

27:35 But Isaac replied, "Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing."

27:36 So Esau declared, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has cheated me twice. He took my birthright, and now he has taken my blessing." Then he asked, "Haven't you saved a blessing for me?"

27:37 But Isaac answered Esau: "Look, I have made him your master and given him all his relatives as servants; I have sustained him with grain and new wine. What is left that I can do for you, my son?"

27:38 Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, O my father!" Then Esau wept aloud.

27:39 His father Isaac answered him: "Behold, your dwelling place shall be away from the richness of the land, away from the dew of heaven above.

27:40 You shall live by the sword and serve your brother. But when you rebel, you will tear his yoke from your neck."

Genesis 28:13-15

I am with thee; to thy seed; I will not leave thee.

28:13 And there at the top the LORD was standing and saying, "I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you now lie.

28:14 Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and east and north and south. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you and your offspring.

28:15 Look, I am with you, and I will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

Genesis 31:53

God judge between us — the prayer's 'judge between' line.

31:53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac.

Genesis 32:24-30

The name change: a man representing a people (Israel).

32:24 So Jacob was left all alone, and there a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

32:25 When the man saw that he could not overpower Jacob, he struck the socket of Jacob's hip and dislocated it as they wrestled.

32:26 Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak." But Jacob replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

32:27 "What is your name?" the man asked. "Jacob," he replied.

32:28 Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men, and you have prevailed."

32:29 And Jacob requested, "Please tell me your name." But he replied, "Why do you ask my name?" Then he blessed Jacob there.

32:30 So Jacob named the place Peniel, saying, "Indeed, I have seen God face to face, and yet my life was spared."

Genesis 35:2-4

Put away strange gods in the household; earrings buried.

35:2 So Jacob told his household and all who were with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you. Purify yourselves and change your garments.

35:3 Then let us arise and go to Bethel. I will build an altar there to God, who answered me in my day of distress. He has been with me wherever I have gone."

35:4 So they gave Jacob all their foreign gods and all their earrings, and Jacob buried them under the oak near Shechem.

Genesis 49:1-28

What shall befall the sons in the last days.

49:1 Then Jacob called for his sons and said, "Gather around so that I can tell you what will happen to you in the days to come:

49:2 Come together and listen, O sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel.

49:3 Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, excelling in honor, excelling in power.

49:4 Uncontrolled as the waters, you will no longer excel, because you went up to your father's bed, onto my couch, and defiled it.

49:5 Simeon and Levi are brothers; their swords are weapons of violence.

49:6 May I never enter their council; may I never join their assembly. For they kill men in their anger, and hamstring oxen on a whim.

49:7 Cursed be their anger, for it is strong, and their wrath, for it is cruel! I will disperse them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

49:8 Judah, your brothers shall praise you. Your hand shall be on the necks of your enemies; your father's sons shall bow down to you.

49:9 Judah is a young lion— my son, you return from the prey. Like a lion he crouches and lies down; like a lioness, who dares to rouse him?

49:10 The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the staff from between his feet, until Shiloh comes and the allegiance of the nations is his.

49:11 He ties his donkey to the vine, his colt to the choicest branch. He washes his garments in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

49:12 His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.

49:13 Zebulun shall dwell by the seashore and become a harbor for ships; his border shall extend to Sidon.

49:14 Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the sheepfolds.

49:15 He saw that his resting place was good and that his land was pleasant, so he bent his shoulder to the burden and submitted to labor as a servant.

49:16 Dan shall provide justice for his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

49:17 He will be a snake by the road, a viper in the path that bites the horse's heels so that its rider tumbles backward.

49:18 I await Your salvation, O LORD.

49:19 Gad will be attacked by raiders, but he will attack their heels.

49:20 Asher's food will be rich; he shall provide royal delicacies.

49:21 Naphtali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns.

49:22 Joseph is a fruitful vine— a fruitful vine by a spring, whose branches scale the wall.

49:23 The archers attacked him with bitterness; they aimed at him in hostility.

49:24 Yet he steadied his bow, and his strong arms were tempered by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, in the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

49:25 by the God of your father who helps you, and by the Almighty who blesses you, with blessings of the heavens above, with blessings of the depths below, with blessings of the breasts and womb.

49:26 The blessings of your father have surpassed the blessings of the ancient mountains and the bounty of the everlasting hills. May they rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince of his brothers.

49:27 Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he devours the prey, in the evening he divides the plunder."

49:28 These are the tribes of Israel, twelve in all, and this was what their father said to them. He blessed them, and he blessed each one with a suitable blessing.

Genesis 50:15-21

Joseph remits what the brothers retained as guilt.

50:15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Joseph bears a grudge? Then he will surely repay us for all the evil that we did to him."

50:16 So they sent word to Joseph, saying, "Before he died, your father commanded,

50:17 'This is what you are to say to Joseph: I beg you, please forgive the transgression and sin of your brothers, for they did you wrong.' So now, Joseph, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father." When their message came to him, Joseph wept.

50:18 His brothers also came to him, bowed down before him, and said, "We are your slaves!"

50:19 But Joseph replied, "Do not be afraid. Am I in the place of God?

50:20 As for you, what you intended against me for evil, God intended for good, in order to accomplish a day like this—to preserve the lives of many people.

50:21 Therefore do not be afraid. I will provide for you and your little ones.” So Joseph reassured his brothers and spoke kindly to them.
