

Exodus

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Exodus 1:1-7

The sons of Israel named as a people.

1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family:

1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;

1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin;

1:4 Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.

1:5 The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy in all, including Joseph, who was already in Egypt.

1:6 Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died,

1:7 but the Israelites were fruitful and increased rapidly; they multiplied and became exceedingly numerous, so that the land was filled with them.

Exodus 3:6, 15

God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob — the God of a line.

3:6 Then He said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

3:15 God also told Moses, “Say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.’ This is My name forever, and this is how I am to be remembered in every generation.

Exodus 4:22-23

Israel is My son, even My firstborn.

4:22 Then tell Pharaoh that this is what the LORD says: ‘Israel is My firstborn son,

4:23 and I told you to let My son go so that he may worship Me. But since you have refused to let him go, behold, I will kill your firstborn son!’”

Exodus 12:3-13

A lamb for a house; blood on the door; the destroyer passes.

12:3 Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man must select a lamb for his family, one per household.

12:4 If the household is too small for a whole lamb, they are to share with the nearest neighbor based on the number of people, and apportion the lamb accordingly.

12:5 Your lamb must be an unblemished year-old male, and you may take it from the sheep or the goats.

12:6 You must keep it until the fourteenth day of the month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel will slaughter the animals at twilight.

12:7 They are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs.

12:8 They are to eat the meat that night, roasted over the fire, along with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12:9 Do not eat any of the meat raw or cooked in boiling water, but only roasted over the fire—its head and legs and inner parts.

12:10 Do not leave any of it until morning; before the morning you must burn up any part that is left over.

12:11 This is how you are to eat it: You must be fully dressed for travel, with your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. You are to eat in haste; it is the LORD's Passover.

12:12 On that night I will pass through the land of Egypt and strike down every firstborn male, both man and beast, and I will execute judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD.

12:13 The blood on the houses where you are staying will be a sign; when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No plague will fall on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:21-27

When your children ask, you shall say: it is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover.

12:21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and told them, "Go at once and select for yourselves a lamb for each family, and slaughter the Passover lamb.

12:22 Take a cluster of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin, and brush the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe. None of you shall go out the door of his house until morning.

12:23 When the LORD passes through to strike down the Egyptians, He will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway; so He will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

12:24 And you are to keep this command as a permanent statute for you and your descendants.

12:25 When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as He promised, you are to keep this service.

12:26 When your children ask you, 'What does this service mean to you?'

12:27 you are to reply, 'It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He struck down the Egyptians and spared our homes.'" Then the people bowed down and worshiped.

Exodus 13:8-14

Tell thy son; the firstborn is the LORD's.

13:8 And on that day you are to explain to your son, 'This is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'

13:9 It shall be a sign for you on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the Law of the LORD is to be on your lips. For with a mighty hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

13:10 Therefore you shall keep this statute at the appointed time year after year.

13:11 And after the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as He swore to you and your fathers,

13:12 you are to present to the LORD the firstborn male of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to the LORD.

13:13 You must redeem every firstborn donkey with a lamb, and if you do not redeem it, you are to break its neck. And every firstborn of your sons you must redeem.

13:14 In the future, when your son asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ you are to tell him, ‘With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.’

Exodus 19:5-6

A kingdom of priests, a holy nation.

19:5 Now if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, you will be My treasured possession out of all the nations—for the whole earth is Mine.

19:6 And unto Me you shall be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words that you are to speak to the Israelites.”

Exodus 20:3-6

No other gods; visiting iniquity to the third and fourth; mercy to thousands.

20:3 You shall have no other gods before Me.

20:4 You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in the heavens above, on the earth below, or in the waters beneath.

20:5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on their children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

20:6 but showing loving devotion to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Exodus 20:24

An altar; I will record My name.

20:24 You are to make for Me an altar of earth, and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and peace offerings, your sheep and goats and cattle. In every place where I cause My name to be remembered, I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 24:3-8

We will do; blood of the covenant on the people.

24:3 When Moses came and told the people all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all responded with one voice: "All the words that the LORD has spoken, we will do."

24:4 And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. Early the next morning he got up and built an altar at the base of the mountain, along with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel.

24:5 Then he sent out some young men of Israel, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD.

24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he splattered on the altar.

24:7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people, who replied, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."

24:8 So Moses took the blood, splattered it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Exodus 28:36-38

Plate on the forehead; Aaron bears iniquity — crown imagery.

28:36 You are to make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

28:37 Fasten to it a blue cord to mount it on the turban; it shall be on the front of the turban.

28:38 And it will be worn on Aaron's forehead, so that he may bear the iniquity of the holy things that the sons of Israel consecrate with regard to all their holy gifts. It shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be acceptable before the LORD.

Exodus 32:1-35

A nation's idolatry; Moses stands in the gap.

32:1 Now when the people saw that Moses was delayed in coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said, "Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!"

32:2 So Aaron told them, "Take off the gold earrings that are on your wives and sons and daughters, and bring them to me."

32:3 Then all the people took off their gold earrings and brought them to Aaron.

32:4 He took the gold from their hands, and with an engraving tool he fashioned it into a molten calf. And they said, "These, O Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"

32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before the calf and proclaimed: "Tomorrow shall be a feast to the LORD."

32:6 So the next day they arose, offered burnt offerings, and presented peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

32:7 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down at once, for your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.

32:8 How quickly they have turned aside from the way that I commanded them! They have made for themselves a molten calf and have bowed down to it. They have sacrificed to it and said, 'These, O

Israel, are your gods, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”

32:9 The LORD also said to Moses, “I have seen this people, and they are indeed a stiff-necked people.

32:10 Now leave Me alone, so that My anger may burn against them and consume them. Then I will make you into a great nation.”

32:11 But Moses sought the favor of the LORD his God, saying, “O LORD, why does Your anger burn against Your people, whom You brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand?

32:12 Why should the Egyptians declare, ‘He brought them out with evil intent, to kill them in the mountains and wipe them from the face of the earth’? Turn from Your fierce anger and relent from doing harm to Your people.

32:13 Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, to whom You swore by Your very self when You declared, ‘I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky, and I will give your descendants all this land that I have promised, and it shall be their inheritance forever.’”

32:14 So the LORD relented from the calamity He had threatened to bring on His people.

32:15 Then Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back.

32:16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

32:17 When Joshua heard the sound of the people shouting, he said to Moses, “The sound of war is in the camp.”

32:18 But Moses replied: “It is neither the cry of victory nor the cry of defeat; I hear the sound of singing!”

32:19 As Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, he burned with anger and threw the tablets out of his hands, shattering them at the base of the mountain.

32:20 Then he took the calf they had made, burned it in the fire, ground it to powder, and scattered the powder over the face of the water. Then he forced the Israelites to drink it.

32:21 “What did this people do to you,” Moses asked Aaron, “that you have led them into so great a sin?”

32:22 “Do not be enraged, my lord,” Aaron replied. “You yourself know that the people are intent on evil.

32:23 They told me, ‘Make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him!’

32:24 So I said to them, ‘Whoever has gold, let him take it off,’ and they gave it to me. And when I threw it into the fire, out came this calf!”

32:25 Moses saw that the people were out of control, for Aaron had let them run wild and become a laughingstock to their enemies.

32:26 So Moses stood at the entrance to the camp and said, “Whoever is for the LORD, come to me.” And all the Levites gathered around him.

32:27 He told them, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Each of you men is to fasten his sword to his side, go back and forth through the camp from gate to gate, and slay his brother, his friend, and his neighbor.’”

32:28 The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people fell dead.

32:29 Afterward, Moses said, “Today you have been ordained for service to the LORD, since each man went against his son and his brother; so the LORD has bestowed a blessing on you this day.”

32:30 The next day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

32:31 So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made gods of gold for themselves.

32:32 Yet now, if You would only forgive their sin.... But if not, please blot me out of the book that You have written.”

32:33 The LORD replied to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot out of My book.

32:34 Now go, lead the people to the place I described. Behold, My angel shall go before you. But on the day I settle accounts, I will punish them for their sin.”

32:35 And the LORD sent a plague on the people because of what they had done with the calf that Aaron had made.

Exodus 34:6-7

Merciful; forgiving; visiting iniquity of the fathers.

34:6 Then the LORD passed in front of Moses and called out: “The LORD, the LORD God, is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in loving devotion and faithfulness,

34:7 maintaining loving devotion to a thousand generations, forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin. Yet He will by no means leave the guilty unpunished; He will visit the iniquity of the fathers on their children and grandchildren to the third and fourth generations.”

Exodus 34:14

The LORD, whose name is Jealous.

34:14 For you must not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.
