

Job

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Job 1:5

Job sanctified his sons; offered burnt offerings continually.

1:5 And when the days of feasting were over, Job would send for his children to purify them, rising early in the morning to offer burnt offerings for all of them. For Job thought, “Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts.” This was Job’s regular practice.

Job 1:8-11

The accuser against a man and all that he has.

1:8 Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one on earth like him, a man who is blameless and upright, who fears God and shuns evil.”

1:9 Satan answered the LORD, “Does Job fear God for nothing?”

1:10 Have You not placed a hedge on every side around him and his household and all that he owns? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

1:11 But stretch out Your hand and strike all that he has, and he will surely curse You to Your face.”

Job 42:7-10

My servant Job shall pray for you; the LORD turned the captivity.

42:7 After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, He said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and your two friends. For you have not spoken about Me accurately, as My servant Job has.

42:8 So now, take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job, and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. Then My servant Job will pray for you, for I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken accurately about Me, as My servant Job has.”

42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD had told them; and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

42:10 After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his prosperity and doubled his former possessions.
