

Ecclesiastes

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14

Fear God and keep His commandments; God shall bring every work into judgment.

12:13 When all has been heard, the conclusion of the matter is this: Fear God and keep His commandments, because this is the whole duty of man.

12:14 For God will bring every deed into judgment, along with every hidden thing, whether good or evil.
