

Mark

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Mark 1:15

Repent ye, and believe the gospel.

1:15 “The time is fulfilled,” He said, “and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe in the gospel!”

Mark 3:27

No man can spoil the strong man’s house unless he first bind him.

3:27 Indeed, no one can enter a strong man’s house to steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can plunder his house.

Mark 7:8-13

Tradition of men making the word of God of none effect — fathers’ teaching vs God.

7:8 You have disregarded the commandment of God to keep the tradition of men. ”

7:9 He went on to say, “You neatly set aside the command of God to maintain your own tradition.

7:10 For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother’ and ‘Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.’

7:11 But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, ‘Whatever you would have received from me is Corban’ (that is, a gift devoted to God),

7:12 he is no longer permitted to do anything for his father or mother.

7:13 Thus you nullify the word of God by the tradition you have handed down. And you do so in many such matters.”

Mark 11:24-26

When ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any.

11:24 Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

11:25 And when you stand to pray, if you hold anything against another, forgive it, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your trespasses as well. ”

Mark 16:16-17

He that believeth and is baptized; in My name they shall cast out devils.

16:16 Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.

16:17 And these signs will accompany those who believe: In My name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues;
