

Romans

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Romans 1:21-25

Vain imaginations; worshiped the creature more than the Creator.

1:21 For although they knew God, they neither glorified Him as God nor gave thanks to Him, but they became futile in their thinking and darkened in their foolish hearts.

1:22 Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools,

1:23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images of mortal man and birds and animals and reptiles.

1:24 Therefore God gave them over in the desires of their hearts to impurity for the dishonoring of their bodies with one another.

1:25 They exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is forever worthy of praise! Amen.

Romans 2:1-6

Wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself.

2:1 You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on another. For on whatever grounds you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things.

2:2 And we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth.

2:3 So when you, O man, pass judgment on others, yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment?

2:4 Or do you disregard the riches of His kindness, tolerance, and patience, not realizing that God's kindness leads you to repentance?

2:5 But because of your hard and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.

2:6 God "will repay each one according to his deeds."

Romans 3:23-25

All have sinned; propitiation through faith in His blood.

3:23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,

3:24 and are justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

3:25 God presented Him as an atoning sacrifice in His blood through faith, in order to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance He had passed over the sins committed beforehand.

Romans 5:12-21

By one man sin entered; by the obedience of One shall many be made righteous.

5:12 Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, so also death was passed on to all men, because all sinned.

5:13 For sin was in the world before the law was given; but sin is not taken into account when there is no law.

5:14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who did not sin in the way that Adam transgressed. He is a pattern of the One to come.

5:15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, how much more did God's grace and the gift that came by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many!

5:16 Again, the gift is not like the result of the one man's sin: The judgment that followed one sin brought condemnation, but the gift that followed many trespasses brought justification.

5:17 For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

5:18 So then, just as one trespass brought condemnation for all men, so also one act of righteousness brought justification and life for all men.

5:19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

5:20 The law came in so that the trespass would increase; but where sin increased, grace increased all the more,

5:21 so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:6-23

Old man crucified; yield yourselves; the wages of sin is death.

6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we should no longer be slaves to sin.

6:7 For anyone who has died has been freed from sin.

6:8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him.

6:9 For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, He cannot die again; death no longer has dominion over Him.

6:10 The death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God.

6:11 So you too must count yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

6:12 Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its desires.

6:13 Do not present the parts of your body to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and present the parts of your body to Him as instruments of righteousness.

6:14 For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace.

6:15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law, but under grace? Certainly not!

6:16 Do you not know that when you offer yourselves as obedient slaves, you are slaves to the one you obey, whether you are slaves to sin leading to death, or to obedience leading to righteousness?

6:17 But thanks be to God that, though you once were slaves to sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching to which you were committed.

6:18 You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

6:19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. Just as you used to offer the parts of your body in slavery to impurity and to escalating wickedness, so now offer them in slavery to righteousness leading to holiness.

6:20 For when you were slaves to sin, you were free of obligation to righteousness.

6:21 What fruit did you reap at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? The outcome of those things is death.

6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves to God, the fruit you reap leads to holiness, and the outcome is eternal life.

6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:1

No condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus.

8:1 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

Romans 8:15-17

Spirit of adoption; we cry, Abba, Father.

8:15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery that returns you to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption to sonship, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!"

8:16 The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

8:17 And if we are children, then we are heirs: heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ—if indeed we suffer with Him, so that we may also be glorified with Him.

Romans 8:26-34

The Spirit helps; who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect?

8:26 In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know how we ought to pray, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words.

8:27 And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

8:28 And we know that God works all things together for the good of those who love Him, who are called according to His purpose.

8:29 For those God foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He would be the firstborn among many brothers.

8:30 And those He predestined, He also called; those He called, He also justified; those He justified, He also glorified.

8:31 What then shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

8:32 He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how will He not also, along with Him, freely give us all things?

8:33 Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

8:34 Who is there to condemn us? For Christ Jesus, who died, and more than that was raised to life, is at the right hand of God—and He is interceding for us.

Romans 8:38-39

Neither principalities nor powers shall separate us.

8:38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

8:39 neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 10:9-13

Confess with thy mouth; whosoever shall call.

10:9 that if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

10:10 For with your heart you believe and are justified, and with your mouth you confess and are saved.

10:11 It is just as the Scripture says: "Anyone who believes in Him will never be put to shame."

10:12 For there is no difference between Jew and Greek: The same Lord is Lord of all, and gives richly to all who call on Him,

10:13 for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

Romans 11:16-24

If the root be holy, so are the branches; the olive tree of the fathers.

11:16 If the first part of the dough is holy, so is the whole batch; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

11:17 Now if some branches have been broken off, and you, a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others to share in the nourishment of the olive root,

11:18 do not boast over those branches. If you do, remember this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.

11:19 You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in."

11:20 That is correct: They were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but be afraid.

11:21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, He will certainly not spare you either.

11:22 Take notice, therefore, of the kindness and severity of God: severity to those who fell, but kindness to you, if you continue in His kindness. Otherwise you also will be cut off.

11:23 And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.

11:24 For if you were cut from a wild olive tree, and contrary to nature were grafted into one that is cultivated, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

Romans 12:1-2

Present your bodies a living sacrifice; renew the mind.

12:1 Therefore I urge you, brothers, on account of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God, which is your spiritual service of worship.

12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what is the good, pleasing, and perfect will of God.

Romans 12:19-21

Vengeance is Mine; overcome evil with good.

12:19 Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but leave room for God's wrath. For it is written: "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord."

12:20 On the contrary, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink. For in so doing, you will heap burning coals on his head."

12:21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 14:12

Every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

14:12 So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God.

Romans 16:20

The God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly.

16:20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
