

2 Corinthians

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

2 Corinthians 5:17-21

If any man be in Christ, a new creature; be ye reconciled to God.

5:17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away. Behold, the new has come!

5:18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

5:19 that God was reconciling the world to Himself in Christ, not counting men's trespasses against them. And He has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

5:20 Therefore we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were making His appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ: Be reconciled to God.

5:21 God made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

2 Corinthians 6:14-18

Be ye separate; I will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be My sons and daughters.

6:14 Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership can righteousness have with wickedness? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness?

6:15 What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever?

6:16 What agreement can exist between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: "I will dwell with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be My people."

6:17 "Therefore come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord. Touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you."

6:18 And: "I will be a Father to you, and you will be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

2 Corinthians 7:1, 10

Cleanse from all filthiness of flesh and spirit; godly sorrow worketh repentance.

7:1 Therefore, beloved, since we have these promises, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that defiles body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

7:10 Godly sorrow brings repentance that leads to salvation without regret, but worldly sorrow brings death.

2 Corinthians 10:3-6

The weapons of our warfare; casting down imaginations; every thought captive.

10:3 For though we live in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh.

10:4 The weapons of our warfare are not the weapons of the flesh. Instead, they have divine power to demolish strongholds.

10:5 We demolish arguments and every presumption set up against the knowledge of God; and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

10:6 And we will be ready to punish every act of disobedience, as soon as your obedience is complete.

2 Corinthians 11:2-3

I have espoused you to one husband; as the serpent beguiled Eve.

11:2 I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. For I promised you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ.

11:3 I am afraid, however, that just as Eve was deceived by the serpent's cunning, your minds may be led astray from your simple and pure devotion to Christ.
