

Hebrews

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

Hebrews 2:14-15

Through death He destroyed him that had the power of death, that is, the devil.

2:14 Now since the children have flesh and blood, He too shared in their humanity, so that by His death He might destroy him who holds the power of death, that is, the devil,

2:15 and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word discerns thoughts; come boldly to the throne of grace.

4:12 For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it pierces even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

4:13 Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight; everything is uncovered and exposed before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

4:14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we profess.

4:15 For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who was tempted in every way that we are, yet was without sin.

4:16 Let us then approach the throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Hebrews 6:13-20

God swore by Himself to Abraham; the forerunner within the veil.

6:13 When God made His promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater to swear by, He swore by Himself,

6:14 saying, "I will surely bless you and multiply your descendants."

6:15 And so Abraham, after waiting patiently, obtained the promise.

6:16 Men swear by someone greater than themselves, and their oath serves as a confirmation to end all argument.

6:17 So when God wanted to make the unchanging nature of His purpose very clear to the heirs of the promise, He guaranteed it with an oath.

6:18 Thus by two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled to take hold of the hope set before us may be strongly encouraged.

6:19 We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain,

6:20 where Jesus our forerunner has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:9-10, 25

Levi paid tithes in Abraham; He ever liveth to make intercession.

7:9 And so to speak, Levi, who collects the tenth, paid the tenth through Abraham.

7:10 For when Melchizedek met Abraham, Levi was still in the loins of his ancestor.

7:25 Therefore He is able to save completely those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to intercede for them.

Hebrews 8:6-13

A better covenant; I will be to them a God; their sins I will remember no more.

8:6 Now, however, Jesus has received a much more excellent ministry, just as the covenant He mediates is better and is founded on better promises.

8:7 For if that first covenant had been without fault, no place would have been sought for a second.

8:8 But God found fault with the people and said: "Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

8:9 It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they did not abide by My covenant, and I disregarded them, declares the Lord.

8:10 For this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord. I will put My laws in their minds and inscribe them on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they will be My people.

8:11 No longer will each one teach his neighbor or his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' because they will all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest.

8:12 For I will forgive their iniquities and will remember their sins no more."

8:13 By speaking of a new covenant, He has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and aging will soon disappear.

Hebrews 9:12-22

By His own blood; without shedding of blood is no remission.

9:12 He did not enter by the blood of goats and calves, but He entered the Most Holy Place once for all by His own blood, thus securing eternal redemption.

9:13 For if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that their bodies are clean,

9:14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God, purify our consciences from works of death, so that we may serve the living God!

9:15 Therefore Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, now that He has died to redeem them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant.

9:16 In the case of a will, it is necessary to establish the death of the one who made it,

9:17 because a will does not take effect until the one who made it has died; it cannot be executed while he is still alive.

9:18 That is why even the first covenant was not put into effect without blood.

9:19 For when Moses had proclaimed every commandment of the law to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, along with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled the scroll and all the people,

9:20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant, which God has commanded you to keep."

9:21 In the same way, he sprinkled with blood the tabernacle and all the vessels used in worship.

9:22 According to the law, in fact, nearly everything must be purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Hebrews 10:16-22

Hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience; boldness by the blood.

10:16 "This is the covenant I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord. I will put My laws in their hearts and inscribe them on their minds."

10:17 Then He adds: "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more."

10:18 And where these have been forgiven, an offering for sin is no longer needed.

10:19 Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus,

10:20 by the new and living way opened for us through the curtain of His body,

10:21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

10:22 let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

Hebrews 11:4, 7-9, 20-22

Abel, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph — faith in a line.

11:4 By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous when God gave approval to his gifts. And by faith he still speaks, even though he is dead.

11:7 By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in godly fear built an ark to save his family. By faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

11:8 By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, without knowing where he was going.

11:9 By faith he dwelt in the promised land as a stranger in a foreign country. He lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

11:20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning the future.

11:21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and worshiped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

11:22 By faith Joseph, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his bones.

Hebrews 12:1

We also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses.

12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off every encumbrance and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with endurance the race set out for us.

Hebrews 12:16-17

Esau found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

12:16 See to it that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his birthright.

12:17 For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. He could find no ground for repentance, though he sought the blessing with tears.

Hebrews 12:22-24

The blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

12:22 Instead, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to myriads of angels

12:23 in joyful assembly, to the congregation of the firstborn, enrolled in heaven. You have come to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of the righteous made perfect,

12:24 to Jesus the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

Hebrews 13:8, 10-15

Jesus Christ the same; we have an altar; the sacrifice of praise.

13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.

13:10 We have an altar from which those who serve at the tabernacle have no right to eat.

13:11 Although the high priest brings the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, the bodies are burned outside the camp.

13:12 And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate, to sanctify the people by His own blood.

13:13 Therefore let us go to Him outside the camp, bearing the disgrace He bore.

13:14 For here we do not have a permanent city, but we are looking for the city that is to come.

13:15 Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise, the fruit of lips that confess His name.
