

James

Passages that underwrite bloodline repentance as the prayers practice it.

James 1:14-15

Lust conceives; sin; death.

1:14 But each one is tempted when by his own evil desires he is lured away and enticed.

1:15 Then after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.

James 3:14-16

Bitter envying; this wisdom is earthly, sensual, devilish.

3:14 But if you harbor bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast in it or deny the truth.

3:15 Such wisdom does not come from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.

3:16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every evil practice.

James 4:4-8

Ye adulterers; submit; resist the devil; draw nigh to God.

4:4 You adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore, whoever chooses to be a friend of the world renders himself an enemy of God.

4:5 Or do you think the Scripture says without reason that the Spirit He caused to dwell in us yearns with envy?

4:6 But He gives us more grace. This is why it says: "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

4:7 Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

4:8 Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

James 5:16

Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another.

5:16 Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man has great power to prevail.
