

3 Ways to Copy Jesus Flawlessly

The acceptable, good, and perfect will of God — three requisites, three levels

There is a reality called the perfect will of God. Another called the good will of God. Finally the acceptable will of God.

Within the perfect will, 3 of 3 requisites have been completed. Within the good will, 2 of 3. Within the acceptable will, 1 of 3.

The three requisites are themselves three-fold: seek, knock, and ask; lay your life down, pick up the cross, and follow / replicate Jesus; and pray one hour, two hours, or three hours in Holy Spirit tongues. To walk in a given will, complete that many steps of each of the three.

Scripture below is the World English Bible (public domain). The Amplified Bible and New Living Translation cannot be copied in full into this file. Every listed reference is printed as the Bible lists it — the complete verse or range, with no mid-verse cuts.

Romans 12:1–2

¹Therefore I urge you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. ²Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God.

The map at a glance

Will of God	Measure	Way 1 — Seek / Knock / Ask	Way 2 — Cross	Way 3 — Tongues
Acceptable	1 of 3 of each of the 3	Seek and continue to seek	Lay your life down	Pray 1 hour in tongues
Good	2 of 3 of each of the 3	Seek and knock — and keep seeking and knocking	Lay your life down and pick up the cross of submitting to someone else who is leading in front of you	Pray 2 hours in Holy Spirit tongues
Perfect	3 of 3 of all 3	Seek and keep seeking, knock and keep knocking, ask and keep asking	Do not let your soul have a say; put your life into the submission of someone who has done it before; replicate Jesus in the TWAMI	Pray 3 hours speaking in Holy Spirit tongues

How the words are used here

- Seek = read the Word of God on a topical search.
- Knock = demand that God open the windows of Heaven.
- Ask = declare over our life the same thing God has already declared.

Way 1 — Seek, knock, and ask

Jesus stacked these as a continuing command, not a one-time event. Luke records the same command as keep asking, keep seeking, keep knocking.

Matthew 7:7–8

⁷“Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.”

Luke 11:5–13

⁵He said to them, “Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,’ ⁷and he from within will answer and say, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can’t get up and give it to you’? ⁸I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs. ⁹“I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. ¹¹“Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won’t give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? ¹²Or if he asks for an egg, he won’t give him a scorpion, will he? ¹³If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?”

Acceptable will — 1 of 3 Seek and continue to seek

Open the Book on the subject God has put in front of you, and stay there until the Word has been searched. Seeking is not browsing for a verse that agrees with you; it is hunting what God actually said on the topic.

Jeremiah 29:13

¹³You shall seek me, and find me, when you search for me with all your heart.

Proverbs 2:1–5

¹My son, if you will receive my words, and store up my commandments within you; ²so as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding; ³yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding; ⁴if you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures: ⁵then you will understand the fear of Yahweh, and find the knowledge of God.

Acts 17:11

¹¹Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.

2 Timothy 2:15

¹⁵Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn’t need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth.

Psalms 119:11

¹¹I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.

Psalms 119:18

¹⁸Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of your law.

Good will — 2 of 3 Seek and knock, and continue both

After the Word has been sought, knock: insist that Heaven open what the Word has already named. Knocking is not unbelief; it is refusing to treat a closed sky as the last word when God has promised an open window. Matthew 7:7–8 and Luke 11:5–13 above already give the full knock command. These are the window-and-door passages.

Malachi 3:10

¹⁰“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this,” says Yahweh of Armies, “if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there will not be room enough for.”

Isaiah 45:2–3

²“I will go before you, and make the rough places smooth. I will break the doors of brass in pieces, and cut apart the bars of iron. ³I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Yahweh, who call you by your name, even the God of Israel.”

Revelation 3:8

⁸“I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn’t deny my name.”

Perfect will — 3 of 3 Seek, knock, and ask — and keep on Asking, in this walk, is not begging as if God had not spoken. It is declaring over your life the same thing God has already declared, until earth agrees with Heaven.

1 John 5:14–15

¹⁴This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. ¹⁵And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

Isaiah 55:10–11

¹⁰For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and doesn’t return there, but waters the earth, and makes it grow and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater; ¹¹so is my word that goes out of my mouth: it will not return to me void, but it will accomplish that which I please, and it will prosper in the thing I sent it to do.

Job 22:28

²⁸You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you. Light shall shine on your ways.

Mark 11:23–24

²³For most certainly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ and doesn’t doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says.

²⁴Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them.

Amos 3:7

⁷ Surely the Lord Yahweh will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.

Way 2 — Lay down your life, pick up the cross, replicate Jesus

Jesus did not offer a self-directed spirituality. He named death to self, a cross carried under another's lead, and a life copied from His. The three Gospel listings of that command:

Luke 9:23

²³ He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

Matthew 16:24

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

Mark 8:34

³⁴ He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

Acceptable will — 1 of 3 Lay your life down

The first requisite is surrender of the life itself — not a mood of willingness, but the actual placing of your life on the altar.

John 15:13

¹³ Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.

1 John 3:16

¹⁶ By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.

Galatians 2:20

²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ lives in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.

John 12:24-25

²⁴ Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. ²⁵ He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life.

Good will — 2 of 3 Lay your life down and pick up the cross of submitting to someone leading in front of you

The cross here is not private suffering you script for yourself. It is submitting your life to someone else who is leading in front of you — a living yoke, not a slogan. Matthew 16:24 is already printed in full above.

Hebrews 13:17

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

1 Corinthians 11:1

¹Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Timothy 2:2

²The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.

Matthew 11:28–30

²⁸“Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

Perfect will — 3 of 3 Soul silent; submitted to one who has done it; replicate Jesus in the TWAMI
Do not let your soul have a say. Put your life into the submission of someone who has already walked this. Replicate Jesus in the TWAMI — walk as He walked, not as the soul prefers.

Matthew 26:39

³⁹He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire.”

Hebrews 4:12

¹²For the word of God is living and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

1 Corinthians 9:26–27

²⁶I therefore run like that, not aimlessly. I fight like that, not beating the air, ²⁷but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

Philippians 2:5–8

⁵Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus, ⁶who, existing in the form of God, didn’t consider equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross.

1 John 2:6

⁶he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

John 13:15

¹⁵For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.

Ephesians 5:1–2

¹ Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children. ² Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance.

Way 3 — Pray in Holy Spirit tongues: one hour, two hours, three hours

Jesus named an hour in Gethsemane. The Spirit gives a language the mind does not author. Duration here is not a superstition; it is the measure of remaining with Him until the flesh yields.

Matthew 26:40–41

⁴⁰ He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, “What, couldn’t you watch with me for one hour? ⁴¹ Watch and pray, that you don’t enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Acceptable will — 1 of 3 Pray one hour in tongues

Stay the hour. Pray with the Spirit in a tongue the Holy Spirit supplies. Matthew 26:40–41 is already printed in full above.

1 Corinthians 14:2

² For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries.

1 Corinthians 14:14–15

¹⁴ For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵ What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

Acts 2:4

⁴ They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.

Good will — 2 of 3 Pray two hours speaking in Holy Spirit tongues

Remain past the first hour. Build yourself up. Pray in the Spirit on all occasions — not as a slogan, as actual time given.

Jude 20

²⁰ But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 6:17–18

¹⁷ And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; ¹⁸ with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints.

Romans 8:26–27

²⁶ In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don’t know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can’t be uttered. ²⁷ He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.

Colossians 4:2

² Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving.

Perfect will — 3 of 3 Pray three hours speaking in Holy Spirit tongues

Three hours is the full measure in this pattern: the flesh has been outlasted, the Spirit has been given room, and the will of God is being prayed — not the soul's agenda.

Luke 6:12

¹² In these days, he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God.

Luke 18:1

¹ He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up.

1 Thessalonians 5:17

¹⁷ Pray without ceasing.

1 Corinthians 14:18

¹⁸ I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all.

Acts 1:14

¹⁴ All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

How the three wills sit together

Romans 12 does not treat “acceptable,” “good,” and “perfect” as three rival gods. They are three depths of the same will, proved in a presented body and a renewed mind. One of three is still on the altar. Two of three is a cross under another's lead plus a door you will not stop knocking. Three of three is Jesus copied: Word sought, Heaven knocked, God's own decree asked; soul silenced under proven leadership; three hours in the Spirit until the flesh is no longer the clock.

Ephesians 5:17

¹⁷ Therefore don't be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.

Colossians 1:9–10

⁹ For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰ that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God.

John 5:19

¹⁹ Jesus therefore answered them, “Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise.”

John 5:30

30 “I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don’t seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.”
