Appendix A compares nine Bible teachers on Romans 13 civil obedience (current government vs. God-only framing).

Old Testament Framework: Sojourner vs. Nations of the Land

Israelite law distinguishes two categories that modern debates often collapse. Read the OT distinction notes (gold box) on passages below.

- Sojourner / ger (resident alien) - a foreigner living in Israel without tribal land inheritance. Often poor, dependent, remembering Egypt. Commanded: no oppression, love as yourself, one law, gleaning rights, fair courts (Ex 22:21; 23:9; Lev 19:33-34; Num 15:15-16; Deut 10:19; 24:17-22). A ger who joins Yahweh is welcomed (Ruth; Isa 56).
- Native / ezrah - Israelite born with tribal allotment in the land.
- Nations / peoples of the land - established occupants with territories, kings, and national religions. Israel was commanded to dispossess them and make no covenant with them or their gods (Ex 23:23-33; Lev 18:24-30; Deut 7:1-5; 12:2-3). Reason given in text: abominations and idolatry that could not coexist with Torah - not mere ethnicity.

Gods and cults Israel was commanded to drive out (non-exhaustive; land could not "vomit out" Israel if these remained):

Deity / cult	People / region	Scripture & practice
Baal; Asherah/Ashtoreth	Canaanites; Phoenicians; syncretism in Israel	Storm/fertility worship; high places, sacred poles (Asherim); 1 Kgs 18; Judg 6; Deut 12:3
Molech / Milcom	Ammonites; Canaanite rites in Israel	Child sacrifice through fire; Lev 18:21; 20:2-5; 1 Kgs 11:5,7
Chemosh	Moabites	National god; child sacrifice ascribed in war taunt; Num 21:29; 1 Kgs 11:7
Ashtoreth	Sidonians	Solomon drawn to Sidonian cult; 1 Kgs 11:5
Dagon	Philistines	Temple cult; Judg 16:23; 1 Sam 5
Baal-peor	Moabites (Peor)	Idolatry and immorality at Shittim; Num 25
Golden calf	Egyptian-style syncretism	"These are your gods, O Israel"; Ex 32
High places, pillars, Asherim	Canaanite landscape religion	Deut 12:2-4; 2 Kgs 17:10-11 - Israel told to destroy, not share
Succoth-benoth; Nergal; Ashima; Nibhaz/Tartak; Adrammelech/Anammelech	Import gods after Assyrian exile (Samaritan mix)	2 Kgs 17:29-31 - nations serving gods of origin and of the land
"Queen of Heaven"	Popular syncretism in Judah	Jer 7:18 - cakes, drink offerings to Ishtar/Astarte figure
Sun worship; Tammuz	Imported cults	Ezek 8:14-16 - abominations at temple

Seven nations of the land (repeated list): Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, Jebusites - plus Girgashites (Deut 7:1). Border nations (Moab, Ammon, Edom) had their own lands and gods; intermarriage and treaty worship forbidden even when not all were "dispossessed" from Israel's territory.

PART ONE - LAW OF THE LAND, GOVERNING AUTHORITY, AND OBEDIENCE

Genesis 9:5-6

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000
| John MacArthur \(Intro\)

Starting with Genesis 9:1 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

And God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth. The fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth and upon every bird of the heavens, upon everything that creeps on the ground and all the fish of the sea. Into your hand they are delivered. Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you. And as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything. But you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.

And for your lifeblood I will require a reckoning: from every beast I will require it and from man. From his fellow man I will require a reckoning for the life of man. "Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed, for God made man in his own image."

And you, be fruitful and multiply, increase greatly on the earth and multiply in it."

Matthew Henry selective

The magistrate must punish murderers: Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed. Before the flood, God took the punishment of murder into his own hands; but now he committed this judgment to men. Wilful murder ought always to be punished with death - because man is made in God's image.

Chuck Smith C2000

At the beginning of a new civilization God establishes capital punishment: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed" - the beginning of human government, the basic foundation upon which human government was to be established. God gives man respect for life; the command antedates the law of Moses.

John MacArthur

Genesis is the book of beginnings - including human government under God after the Flood. Life is sacred because man bears God's image; human authority exists to protect that image. Pre-Mosaic, pre-Israel - civil order as creation ordinance.

Exodus 18:13-26

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Exodus 18:13 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

The next day Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from morning till evening. When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning till evening?" And Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God; when they have a dispute, they come to me and I decide between one person and another, and I make them know the statutes of God and his laws." Moses' father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good. You and the people with you will certainly wear yourselves out, for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it alone. Now obey my voice; I will give you advice, and God be with you! You shall represent the people before God and bring their cases to God, and you shall warn them about the statutes and the laws, and make them know the way in which they must walk and what they must do. Moreover, look for able men from all the people, men who fear God, who are trustworthy and hate a bribe, and place such men over the people as chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. And let them judge the people at all times. Every great matter they shall bring to you, but any small matter they shall decide themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you. If you do this, God will direct you, you will be able to endure, and all this people also will go to their place in peace."

So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he had said. Moses chose able men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, chiefs of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties, and of tens. And they judged the people at all times. Any hard case they brought to Moses, but any small matter they decided themselves.

Chuck Smith C2000

Jethro saw Moses judging alone from morning till evening and said, "That's not good - you're gonna wear yourself out." He counseled able men who fear God, hate a bribe, chiefs of thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens - "let them judge the people at all seasons." Moses hearkened and chose able men; the hard causes they brought to Moses, every small matter they judged themselves.

Romans 13:1-7

ESV Passage | Greek Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000
| John MacArthur \(Intro\)

Starting with Romans 13:1 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval, for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. Therefore one must be in subjection, not only because of God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. For because of this you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed.

Matthew Henry selective

Let every soul be subject - every person, not excluding the clergy. There is no power but of God - civil power is derived from him. We must be subject, not only for wrath, but for conscience' sake. If Caesar's commands interfere with God's, we must obey God rather than men.

Chuck Smith c2000

Paul wrote while Nero ruled Rome. The Bible does not allow civil disobedience except where God's law supersedes man's - as when they refused to declare Caesar lord, or when Peter said in Acts 4:19 we must obey God rather than men. Why does God allow evil rulers? Because men want them; yet we are subject because powers are ordained of God. Rulers bear the sword as ministers of God; pay taxes, for they are God's ministers.

John MacArthur

Some have ignored Paul's teaching on obedience to human government (13:1-7) in the name of Christian activism; others have used it to defend slavish obedience to totalitarian regimes. Both are errors.

Matthew 22:15-22

ESV Passage | Greek Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Matthew 22:15 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

Then the Pharisees went and plotted how to entangle him in his words. And they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God truthfully, and you do not care about anyone's opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why put me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. And Jesus said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" They said, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard it, they marveled. And they left him and went away.

Matthew Henry selective

Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's - we must remember withal to render to God the things that are God's. Our purses be Caesar's, our consciences are God's. If Caesar's commands interfere with God's, we must obey God rather than men.

Chuck Smith c2000

Pharisees and Herodians tried to entangle Jesus: if He said pay taxes to Caesar, the Jews would hate Him as a Roman collaborator; if He said no, Rome would arrest Him. He asked whose image is on the denarius - "Caesar's" - then: "Render therefore to Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things which are God's." They marvelled and left Him.

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

NATIONS OF THE LAND: established occupants defiled Canaan by Molech worship, Baal/Asherah fertility cults, and sexual abominations (vv.1-23). Israel must not copy them; land "vomited out" prior nations. Not a sojourner law - a territorial-cultic judgment.

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

SOJOURNER (Heb. ger): a foreigner residing in Israel without inherited tribal land. Not a landholding nation; dependent on Israel's hospitality and subject to the same law (cf. Num 15:15-16). Command: love as yourself - the opposite of oppressing the landless resident. Contrast: the seven nations of Canaan (Deut 7:1) held established territories and national cults; they were not gerim to be assimilated but occupants to be dispossessed because of abominations.

Matthew Henry selective

Thou shalt not vex a stranger, but love him as thyself - as one of thy own people. Cheating a stranger is as great a sin as cheating an Israelite.

Chuck Smith C2000

Also the respect for a stranger (ger) - treat him as one born in the land; no tribal inheritance, but full neighbor-love. Same chapter forbids Canaanite occult (vv.26-31). The ger is not a landholding nation with Baal/Asherah cults; he is the landless resident under Yahweh's law.

PART TWO - LOVE OF CHRIST AND LOVE OF NEIGHBOR

Leviticus 19:33-34

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Leviticus 19:33 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

SOJOURNER (Heb. ger): a foreigner residing in Israel without inherited tribal land. Not a landholding nation; dependent on Israel's hospitality and subject to the same law (cf. Num 15:15-16). Command: love as yourself - the opposite of oppressing the landless resident. Contrast: the seven nations of Canaan (Deut 7:1) held established territories and national cults; they were not gerim to be assimilated but occupants to be dispossessed because of abominations.

"When a stranger sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. You shall treat the stranger who sojourns with you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."

Matthew Henry selective

Thou shalt not vex a stranger, but love him as thyself, as one of thy own people. They must not trample upon mankind - love the stranger; for you were strangers in Egypt.

Chuck Smith C2000

Also the respect for a stranger (ger) - treat him as one born in the land; no tribal inheritance, but full neighbor-love. Same chapter forbids Canaanite occult (vv.26-31). The ger is not a landholding nation with Baal/Asherah cults; he is the landless resident under Yahweh's law.

Exodus 22:21-24

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Exodus 22:21 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

SOJOURNER (ger): no tribal allotment; Israel must remember they were gerim in Egypt. Oppressing the landless foreigner is forbidden - distinct from the conquest command against established Canaanite nations who possessed the land and served other gods.

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Exodus 23:4 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

Even an enemy's donkey gets help - humanitarian duty. Distinct category from national expulsion: individual mercy vs. covenant separation from landholding idolatrous nations.

Exodus 23:9

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Paragraph context (target reference in bold where marked)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

SOJOURNER: "You shall not oppress a sojourner" - same memory-of-Egypt rationale as 22:21. The sojourner has no ancestral claim to Israel's land; Israel is commanded justice toward the vulnerable resident, not expulsion.

Starting with Leviticus 19:9 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

Gleanings left for the poor and the sojourner (ger) - economic provision for the landless resident, same holiness code that forbids Canaanite abominations (Lev 18).

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Deuteronomy 10:17 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

God "loves the sojourner" (ger) - food, clothing, no oppression. The ger is landless and dependent; Israel's duty is provision and justice. Not the same category as the nations of the land whose kings, high places, and gods Israel was told to destroy (Deut 12:2-3).

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

Justice and gleaning rights for the sojourner, fatherless, and widow - all without secure land inheritance. The ger shares in Israel's economic mercy; this is neighbor-love for the resident alien, not a treaty with a foreign nation's religion.

PART THREE - DEPORTATION, EXPULSION, EXILE, COVENANT SEPARATION

Genesis 3:22-24

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000
| John MacArthur \(Intro\)

Starting with Genesis 3:22 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

Then the LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of us in knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat, and live forever - " therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden to work the ground from which he was taken. He drove out the man, and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim and a flaming sword that turned every way to guard the way to the tree of life.

Matthew Henry selective

God turned him out and kept him out - sent him forth, then drove him out. Exclusion from communion with God which was the bliss of paradise. Cherubim guarded the way to the tree of life.

Chuck Smith C2000

God sent Adam forth from Eden and drove him out, cherubim guarding the tree of life - not merely judgment but protection: lest man eat of the tree of life and live forever in this miserable, cursed condition. God protects man from his own folly until redemption in Christ.

Deuteronomy 28:64-68

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Deuteronomy 28:58 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

"If you are not careful to do all the words of this law that are written in this book... the LORD will bring you and your king... to a nation that you have not known...

And the LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other gods of wood and stone... And among these nations you shall find no rest... The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt... and there you shall offer yourselves for sale as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you."

Matthew Henry selective

The Lord shall scatter thee among all people - remarkably fulfilled in their dispersion. If they would not be ruled by God's commands, they should be ruined by his curse.

Chuck Smith C2000

God pronounces curses for disobedience: "The Lord shall scatter thee among all people, from one end of the earth even unto the other." The Jew became a byword among nations - fulfilled in dispersion - because they disobeyed the commandments of God.

Ezra 10:1-44

ESV Passage | Hebrew Interlinear \(BLB\) | Matthew Henry | Chuck Smith C2000

Starting with Ezra 10:1 - paragraph context (target reference in bold)

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

POST-EXILE SEPARATION: wives from "peoples of the land" (Canaanites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians per Ezra 9:1) who remained in pagan worship - not gerim who had joined Israel's God. Ruth (Moabitess) shows the contrast: welcomed when she took Yahweh. Ezra's crisis: national-religious allegiance that refused covenant, risking Baal/Asherah syncretism again.

While Ezra prayed and made confession... Shecaniah said, "We have broken faith with our God and have married foreign women... let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives..." - read full chapter on BLB for the assembly, oath, and list of names (Ezra 10:1-44).

Matthew Henry selective

The greater problem was wives who remained pagan and refused the covenant - separation grounded in faith, not race. Covenant-faithfulness after exile.

Chuck Smith c2000

After exile, Israel had again married foreign wives and risked idolatry. Ezra's remedy seems harsh - put away the wives - "but it had to be done if they were going to survive." Smith notes inter-racial marriage was forbidden only to Israel to preserve the holy seed and prevent idolatry; for Christians the parallel is "be not unequally yoked with an unbeliever" (2 Cor 6:14).

OT distinction: sojourner vs. nations of the land

Six nations named with territories and gods - drive out, no covenant, lest Israel serve Baal, Asherah, and Canaanite cults. Not a sojourner passage.

Read from Exodus 23:20 in BLB ESV paragraph view.

Chuck Smith C2000

Drive out six nations with land and gods - Hivites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Amorites, Jebusites. "Make no covenant with them nor their gods." Little by little - lest Israel serve Baal and Asherah. Contrast vv.4-9: kindness to sojourner. Israel kept Gibeonites and paid for disobedience.

Appendix A - Bible Teachers: Government Obedience (Romans 13)

Comparison of teachers the user listens to for Bible teaching and meditation. Source data: data/BIBLE-TEACHERS-GOVERNMENT-OBEDIENCE.txt (compiled 2026-08-02).

Question. Does each teacher treat Romans 13 as binding duty to the current civil government (taxes, laws, honor officials), with a narrow Acts 4:19 / Acts 5:29 exception - or frame obedience mainly as obedience to God apart from the physical magistrate?

- Category A (current civil government): 6 of 9
- Category B (God apart from physical state): 0 of 9
- Unclear (no public Rom 13:1-7 civil doctrine on record): 3 of 9

Note: All six Category A teachers also say God outranks the state when the two directly conflict. That is standard evangelical dual citizenship, not Category B.

Teacher	Class	Primary source	Key quote / summary
Chuck Smith	A	C2000 Romans 13 (BLB)	Submit to governing authorities (Paul under Nero). Obedience is the norm; Acts 4:19 is the rare limit when God's law supersedes human decree.
Chuck Missler	A	Our Dual Citizenship (Koinonia House)	Rom 13:1-3; in a republic submission is primarily to laws and constitutional processes, not persons. Christ remains final authority.
Chuck Swindoll	A	How to Be a Godly Rebel (Insight for Living)	Submit under Nero as default; civil disobedience only when human authority conflicts with God; pay taxes, obey laws.
Chip Ingram	A	The Church and Politics (Living on the Edge)	God placed this government at this time in this country; submit, pay taxes, honor as worship (Rom 13:1-7).
Charles Stanley	A	Election response essay	Anti-anarchy; submit to authorities. Civil disobedience only when state forbids what God commands or commands sin.
Alistair Begg	A	Citizenship - Part One (Truth For Life)	Exemplary earthly citizens; submit, pay taxes, honor leaders. God first when worship/allegiance conflict.

Dan Mohler	?	HCSKL Day 24 notes	Reads Rom 13:8-10 only; skips 13:1-7. Authority teaching is spiritual (kingdom over enemy). No clear civil doctrine on record.
Todd White	?	Lifestyle Christianity	Obedience to Christ, identity, evangelism. No Rom 13:1-7 sermon found for this Todd White (distinct from other Pastor Todd on SermonAudio).
Lionheart Church	?	lionheartchurch.org	Rom 13:1-7 civil magistrate teaching not verified from available notes. Political prayer content exists; doctrine unconfirmed.

A - Current civil government

Default: obey the magistrate you are under (laws, taxes, respect).

Exception: obey God rather than men when direct conflict (Acts 4:19).

Passages: Rom 13:1-7, 1 Pet 2:13-17, Titus 3:1, Matt 22:21.

B - God apart from physical state

Government obedience collapsed into spiritual obedience only; little or no binding duty to civil authority. None of the nine clearly teach this on record.

? - Unclear

Insufficient public teaching on Rom 13:1-7 / civil magistrate duty to classify as A or B.

Related passages in this study: Rom 13:1-7, Acts 4:19, Acts 5:29, 1 Pet 2:13-17, Titus 3:1, Matt 22:15-22. Chuck Smith C2000 on Rom 13 is indexed in data/DEPORTATION-BLB-INDEX.txt.
