

Part 4: Thirty Countries - Statutes Compared to Biblical Law (Deportation Study Extension)

Purpose: Extend the deportation biblical study with statute comparison, not verse-by-verse BLB commentary. Sources: national codes, constitutions, World Justice Project Rule of Law Index 2025, Pew Research religious composition (2010-2020), CIA World Factbook, and official government portals.

Biblical frame (from Parts 1-3): Gen 9 (life); Ex 18-23 / Deut 16-28 (impartial justice, sojourner, covenant); Lev 18-19 (sexual order, ger protection); Num 15:16 (one law); Rom 13 (law of the land); Ezra 10 (broken covenant faith, not ethnicity).

Rating key: Aligns = statute largely matches biblical expectation; Partial = mixed or secularized; Conflicts = statute or practice opposes the biblical norm; Mixed = strong in law, weak in enforcement, or vice versa.

Not legal advice. Laws change; verify current codes. No country matches theocratic Israel; comparison is on categories, not carbon-copy Torah civil law.

Comparison axes (10)

- Security - state may exclude threats (functional analog to Ex 23:33; not ethnic template)
