Good day everyone and welcome to the podcast. I'm your host Ashton. Today we're going to start a new topic called Breaking Soul Ties. In this topic we're going to look at what a soul tie is, what is the spiritual ramifications of having soul ties, what are good soul ties and what are bad soul ties. We're also going to be looking at what repentance is because you cannot break a soul tie without having repented for the soul ties. The importance of repenting before breaking a soul tie and also how to replace old habits with new habits.

Because at the end of the day what good is it if you break an old habit and don't replace it with a new habit, you will only revert back to the old habits and that will then put you back in bondage and you would not have the capacity or the willpower to move forward on later on in life. Soul ties can occur between lovers, they can occur between sexual partners, they can occur between people, friends, church leaders and their congregation, it can occur between parents, it can occur with work colleagues.

You could have an emotional soul ties, it can occur with somebody of the opposite sex or of the same sex at work where you are emotionally dependent on this person or this person is emotionally dependent on you and sometimes it can be extremely draining. And so we're going to have a look at all of this in this podcast and we're going to see how God designed us for what purpose did he design us for and how we broke it. We're going to look at how bonding occurs.

We're going to look at what we should do if we find ourselves with a high body count. And then we're going to do the prayers that are going to set us free because you've got to have faith, you've got to believe. That's going to set us free from the soul ties we've had with people who are once in our lives or no longer in our lives, who are currently in our lives but don't want to go away and we don't know how to break away from them. So sit back, relax and maybe you want to take a note, a pen and paper and take some notes, that's okay because the journey might be a little bit lengthy but at the end of the day we're going to come out with garments as white as snow.

So let's start from the beginning and we're going to walk away from the word of God from the beginning into our current lives. One of the things that God had impressed upon my heart was to explain it this way, he said, or he showed me that I should explain it as an analog clock. And you know analog clock got 1 to 12 on it and he says when the two hands are pointing to the 12 then all our desires are for God, we live for God. But the minute the long hand moves away and it points slightly off, there is sin because we know sin is missing the mark and the generation that is born within that sin then starts from a point of sin, not from a point of God.

And unlike the generation that is born within that sin, not from a point of sin, not from a point of sin, not from a point of sin. Generation that was born at the two arms pointing to the 12. And then he says, as the long arm moves further, it goes to the number 2, then that generation is built upon the traditions of the first generations that were established in sin. So now you have traditions that are established in sin by the first generation that hasn't been repented of.

And no one has returned back to God. And then you get the third generation. By then God has already forgotten the children because the word of God says, if you forget me, I will forget you. And I will pass down my curses, but I will pass down the curse you have brought upon yourself to the third and fourth generation. And so that generation then grows up. They're a little bit more wicked than the one that was at one, the one that was at two and the one that was at three until you get to the fourth generation.

Now the traditions of that fourth generation are firmly established because they believe when they are born and they open their eyes and they come into the world and their family is busy doing these things, that these things are normal. These are the traditions of the family. These are the traditions of the community of the country. And nobody stops to rectify or to question whether or not this particular thing that I'm doing, is it against the will of God? And so Satan breathes in and brings in all of the sins that we participate in and we think it's normal because everybody around us is doing it and nobody is saying this is wrong.

And even if there is anybody saying it's wrong, that particular person is drowned out because we like it, we love it. Our flesh is accustomed to it. It seems normal to us. And so God said, use that analogy to show people how far away they have gone from me while doing the soul ties. And I want to tell you right now, just because you think you're in church or you attend church, doesn't mean that you have also strayed and gone far away from God. Going to church is not an indication that you serve God.

Not at all. Going to church just means you go to church. But if you are obedient and you strive for the word, to do it, to live it, to be obedient to it, then going to church serves a huge purpose in your life. So now we're going to start from the beginning and I'm going to read from the book of Genesis chapter 2 verse 21. Verse 21 says, And the Lord God caused the deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slipped, and he took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh instead.

Therefore, thereof, and the rib which the Lord God had taken from man, he had made a woman and brought her unto the man. And Adam said, Now listen carefully, this is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She shall be called woman because she was taken out of man. This is what Adam said. So for the first time, Adam sees Eve. And then Adam makes a commitment to Eve. On his own volition, he makes a commitment to Eve. Then God speaks and says, Therefore, Now this word, therefore, if you see this word, therefore, you must understand what's a therefore.

Therefore, basically saying, based upon the commitment you have made or the confession you have made to this woman, shall a man leave his father and his mother and shall cleave unto his wife and they shall be one flesh. So this was a union and this was a marriage that was taking place and they both were naked and the man and his wife were not ashamed. So when God was dealing with me, he said, take note that when he brought Eve to Adam, he said nothing because in the beginning there was not a suitable help meet for Adam.

So when God brought Eve, out of Adam's own mouth came the commitment to Eve. It was not God, it was Adam that committed himself to Eve. And upon the words of Adam, God then made the decree, the design for a man and a woman and how they should live. So let's quickly look at the definition of the word cleave. The word cleave in the Strong's is 1692 and it means to cling, to adhere figuratively, to catch by pursuit. We always hear of men chasing after women, abide fast, fast together, to follow close, harden after and be joined together, keep, fast, overtake, pursue, stick and that's the definition for cleave.

So God said after Adam's throw ups, after his sweet talk Eve, God said to Adam and Eve, for this reason, a man, he didn't say a woman, he says a man will leave his mother and his father to be with his wife. Based upon your confession now, a man is going to do this. He is going to follow close to his wife, he is going to be joined, they are going to stay together and he is going to pursue her and they are going to be a family in that manner. But then after the serpent had come into the garden and had tempted Eve and she had gave Adam the apple to eat, now God was on the scene and he was dishing out curses.

And in chapter 3, verse 16, he says unto the woman, I'm going to read here, unto the woman, he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception. In sorrow thou shalt bring forth children, now listen to this, and thy desire shall be unto thy husband and he will rule over thee. The word in the strong reads as kassab, it means to yearn for or to long after. Another definition says that the desire can range in various wants. Your emotional needs, your emotional needs, your cravings, your natural desires, your sexual longing can be for the man, will be for the man, your desires will be for the man, and your desires can even exist.

It can extend, depending on your level of godliness, how much of the word you have seeded inside of you, it can extend to doing unnatural things for the man. And so when the Lord God says, your desire will be for the man, those are the things that he had put inside of the curse upon the woman. But pay careful attention, God never ever said to Adam the same thing. To Adam he said, unto Adam he said, because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it, cursed is the ground.

He cursed the ground, for thy sake, in sorrow thou shalt eat thereof all the days of thy life. Now pay careful attention, take note. If had God said to Adam, your desire is going to be for the woman, then what he had said to Eve would be cancelled out, because you'd have two people who desire each other, and because God has put this desire upon both of them, they would love each other until the end of the earth. They would go crazy for each other every single day, because they have a divine blessing of love upon their lives.

But he doesn't. He withholds this from Adam. Because in the beginning he says to Adam, based upon your confession, you will chase after the woman, you will leave your mother and father to find one. But he never ever says to Adam, your desire will be for a woman. He left that gap open. And so you find now women, I'm just generalizing, but most women, when they're sitting there and they don't have that phone call from their husband, their boyfriend, or they're just chatting with somebody, they have this desire, where is he? What is he doing? Why is he taking so long? He hasn't called me.

He hasn't emailed. He hasn't texted me. He's late. I hope he's okay. All your desires are geared toward this particular person. But the man can be very wayward. The man cannot care. Because in the beginning, God says, based upon your confession, that means your level of determination to the woman, based upon that, X, Y, and Z. And if you ever wonder why a man is so wayward and he doesn't care, or he comes across as uncaring and unsympathetic, it's in the Bible, it's right there in the beginning, the nature of a man, based upon man's confession.

And later on, when you look in scriptures, then Paul and Jesus, first Jesus, repairs the nature of a man. And Jesus says, we should love one another as I have loved you. Now, the standard is no longer as a man loves a woman, but the standard changes to as Jesus loves the church.

You see, that was missing in the beginning. In the beginning, it was only as a man would love a woman as he see her, as he talk to her, as he chase after her, and as he pursue her, and as long as he's interested in her, then a man would love a woman in that manner.

But when Jesus came along, he says, do it this way, as I have loved you. Now there's a higher standard. And a higher calling for a man to love a woman correctly. And this is what God had placed upon my heart while I was preparing this podcast. And I was reading scriptures and I said, wait, wait, wait, now look at this, look at that, look at that. Let's put things into perspective. Because this is going to ultimately play out as the podcast moves along, how these sexual soul ties are formed and the reasons behind it.

Then you'll have a better understanding as to why I feel this way and why I do the things that I do. So I want to continue with the relationship aspect. And we're going to look at how God created us. Because God created us with a body, he created us with a mind and he created us with a spirit. In the beginning, when there was Father, Son and Holy Spirit, there was no disunity amongst the three. They were perfect. They were transparent with each other.

There was nothing hidden between the three of them. They knew everything perfectly. And when God created Adam and Eve, He had created them the same way. There was no disunity between the two of them. They were perfect. They were transparent. They were both naked. But the nakedness was not something that they were ashamed of. That's how transparent they were to each other. That transparency was a reflection of their relationship with God and God's relationship with Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

It was perfect unity. That is why when a man and a woman gets together, when they kiss, you can feel the breath, the soul of that person. When they embrace, you can feel that person's spirit for you, that person desires you. And when they're having physical intimacy, you feel the warmth of that body. There's a unity. And it only goes back to the first design of God. When a man and a woman are together, they undress themselves. They are completely transparent to each other.

There are no secrets between the two of them. They accept each other for who they are. This was the original design for God, by God, in the Garden of Eden, for a man and a woman. So intimacy, under the banner of marriage, of course, done properly, goes all the way back to the Garden of Eden, as God had originally designed a man and a woman to be. But then, after they had sinned, this unity came between the two of them. Adam immediately blamed God for the woman that he had given her.

Adam covered his sin. Adam didn't confess to God his sin. And when God had kicked them out of the garden, when they had kids, both Cain and Abel, there was disunity that continued amongst the siblings. So the disunity within the parents continued amongst the children. What this now teaches us is that there is now generational disunity that passed from Adam and Eve in the garden unto Cain and Abel. And this generational disunity doesn't only stop and start with Adam and Eve because we are the offspring of Adam and Eve, what we do in our relationships for them.

Paul upon our children. Examples I will use. A father unites with mother. Either party hates each other. You'll come together, you'll be in love, but now through whatever happened, you'll start fighting and you'll hate each other. The child is conceived. The child grows up hating, becomes a child of hate. The child sees the parents quarreling all the time, but then they also make up all the time. It's a bit confusing. Then that child becomes a child of dissension and quarreling.

Maybe the parents are under the influence of drugs and alcohol. The child then becomes a slave to addiction. Maybe the parents use force or they harm each other. The relationship is one of the man will dominate the woman and she's not really into it or she hasn't consented to it. Then this child that is born, this child that is conceived by such parents is a forceful child, is a lustful child. Maybe the one or the other party secretly lusts after someone else.

I mean, that's a horrible thing to be intimate with somebody and they are picturing somebody else. Then that child that is conceived will have a spirit of shame upon them, will have an orphan spirit upon them. Maybe one of the parties is highly rebellious and doesn't stay in the relationship. Then you have a child that is rebellious, a child that doesn't want to listen because of the parents. Remember, there is this generational disunity. What the parents do and what the parents hold on to, the children will retain that are born through that relationship.

So you've got to be very careful that you are not going into relationships and you're trying to love somebody from a particular sin, from a particular place of hurt, from a particular place of harm because you would never be able to love that person properly because that space, place belongs to something else. And you are forcing this relationship and you are forcing this relationship and you have a child and now this child is carrying this generational thing you have passed on to the child.

But this podcast is not about generational curses and so on and so forth. This podcast is about soul ties. Now, I just want to put something in your mind that blessing God gave in the beginning to Adam and Eve. Genesis chapter 1 verse 28 says, And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living creature that moved upon the earth.

I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of the earth, and every tree, and so on. Now, take note that the blessing from the beginning was to a married couple. A married couple will subdue the earth. A married couple will be blessed, will be fruitful, and will multiply. The blessing for fruitfulness is upon a married couple, not an individual person. And I know they teach sometimes in church that God said you must be fruitful and multiply, and they use it in the context.

For sure, we'll be generous. Thank you. That you are going to do all these things. No, the blessing comes upon the married couple to do this. Because the married couple will have kids, they will have a family, and they will have cousins, and then they will have so on and so forth. And before you know it, people start referring to that particular place by the person's surname. And they will say, oh, don't the Gerards live up in that particular area? Because the family of the Gerards have now subdued that area, and the people would know that that area is the Gerards area, because they have subdued it.

But this was just a little bit of information as to the background of relationship soul ties. That God intended to be between a man and a woman only, and that they should be married, and be in a committed relationship. And Jesus came along, and he showed us how to love each other unconditionally. And so a man should love a woman from the point of Christ as Christ has loved him. And he should take what Christ has done for him, and he should give it to the woman.

And the woman should love a man from the point of Christ Jesus, and what Christ had done for him, unselfishly and unconditionally, and give it to her husband, thereby bringing out the desire for both of them now to be fulfilled. Soul ties can also form between two people, as friends, or as allies. And in the Bible, we see in 1 Samuel 18 verse 1, The Hebrew word for knit is Kwasha, and it means to bind, tie, or stick together. This soul tie between Jonathan and David ultimately saved Jonathan when the Gibeonites came to David and said, We require seven sons of Saul to be killed.

And when David had taken stock of Saul's sons, he didn't give Jonathan because he loved Jonathan. So that was a very positive and it was a very good soul tie. Based upon the soul tie that Jonathan had with David, his life was spared, and he was not murdered by the Gibeonites. Another soul tie that is encouraged is that of the believers. 2 Colossians 2 verse 2 But I want to step back and go to the first soul tie that I spoke about, or rather the second one, between Jonathan and David, in your life, you could have people that just gravitate towards you, or people you gravitate towards, and you compliment each other, and you share secrets with this person, and you truly believe in your heart that this person will not betray you, and you have a good relationship with this person, and you have formed then a soul tie with this person.

I think he thinks he should have been published. Well, you could have heard this person. I can find myself, or if you talked about that, There are those people who will seek you out, they will pursue you, hunt you down to be your friend, but then they want to know everything about your business. Where you went to, who you spoke to, how long you spoke to that person, what you all did, what time you came home, what you cooked, what's in your cupboards, what you're wearing.

And something seems a little bit off about the amount of time this person is in your life. It can be almost draining. But at the same time, it can also be addictive because this person pays a lot of attention to you. But this is not a good soul tie. This heavy dependency on your existence to make their lives mean something or matter. Some people who use witchcraft do this a lot because they want to monitor you, they want to study you, they want to understand you.

So when they do break you, they break you utterly and completely. You need to be able to discern the people around you and their motives and not just take everybody at face value. You need to make sure and ensure that the people who genuinely seek you out are seeking you out because they truly want to see you progress in life. They don't want to become a drain to your energy that you have. And I'm not talking about chakras and all of these things.

We are Christians. We don't believe in all of that. But I'm talking about your emotional energy, your physical energy, just your mind. You know, when you need that energy in your mind to focus on your life and just to get through the day and you've got this person coming with their 110 bags of garbage that they want to dump on you, you've got to have a boundary and you've got to set a limit with such people. You don't want to be tied to such people because these people can make you feel bad quickly.

These people will manipulate you. These people will make you feel guilty for your own things, as if you did something wrong. That's how bad soul ties with such people are. It is your responsibility to do a proper assessment of who you have in your life, who you have around you in your life. That soul tie you need to stay away from and avoid. The other soul tie is, like I read in Colossians 2 verse 2, where you are in a church setting. And church, depending on where you fellowship, can be a very uplifting place.

It can be a spiritually enlightening place. You can get energy to carry on for the next week. You are motivated, you feel the presence of God, the love of God. You have healing, you have deliverance, so on and so forth. And it can also be a very vulnerable place because you have to confess your sins. You have to confess all of your dirty deeds and your dirty ways. And sometimes you are in a cell group, in a body, and you pour out your soul to these people in the hopes that they are not going to catch, carry and take your confessions as stories to other people in the church and spread information about you that shouldn't be spread.

Instead, instead... Instead... As the word of God would have us, we all move in unison. We move in oneness. Acts 1 verse 14 says, These all continued in one accord, in prayer and supplication with the woman and Mary, the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers. This means like an orchestra that plays a beautiful piece. This is how the body should be that you're in. You feel that there is a unity. You feel there's unity amongst you. And what you are producing is a godly sound, a godly production, so to speak.

But there are people in church who are not healed. They come, but they don't want to take the prescription of their physician. And they're there to gossip, catch stories, get information. Make their lives feel better. And they form soul ties with people. They are soulish people. They're always in the soulish realm. They're always in the emotional realm. They're always, I feel this way and I feel that way. They're never led by the Spirit. And these people sometimes strive to be in positions in church.

Sometimes they strive to be close to the pastor. And you could be that person. You know, pastor said this, pastor said that, pastor, pastor, pastor, pastor, pastor. And you could have an ungodly soul tie, an unhealthy soul tie with these particular people because there's contention in the church. It's fighting for people's affections. And you've got groups and you've got cliques and you've got fashion parades and you've got this, that, to the third.

And it's just a whole mess. Because the soul tie aspect is out of hand and the Spirit of God is no longer leading. People are now taking offenses. You can't say a word and someone takes an offense to what you said. And they've left the church and they've resigned from Christianity and the church hopping. And it just becomes a whole mess. It is your responsibility to ensure that you are not one of those people who are in church for recognition. Who are in church just for soul ties.

To be soulish. To dump your garbage on other people. And be careful that other people don't dump their garbage on you. Yes, we share each other's burdens. We pray for each other and we move in unison. But there's a line that we need to keep. And if we become soulish in church, then how does the Spirit of God lead? Because the soul has a mind of its own. And the soul wants to rule also. Your spirit wants to rule. Your soul wants to rule. And your flesh wants to rule.

But the godly order is that your spirit rules. Your soul is obedient to your spirit. And your body has to follow suit. Be careful. Also while you're in church. That you are not groomed. To be in a position. That you're going to be locked into. So you may be good at something. And they acknowledge and can see you are good at this thing. So they promise themselves. They're going to give you a position. And they give you this position. And you wholeheartedly take this position.

And everybody is blowing hot air at you. Because you are genuinely good at what you do. But now you are locked in a soul tie. And you are trapped in a position by the soul tie and you don't have the vision to see what God really wants for your life because you've accepted this is your spot. They know that this is what you're good for. So they give you the position and they lock you in that position. You have to be very, very spiritually aware of what is going on in your church before you commit your soul to that place.

I recall there was a famous place of worship and when it exploded on the scene, it was the go-to place to be saved. If you needed healing, you went there and you got your healing, you got your deliverance there. Their people were set free. Their pastors came out of that place. It was a place that was on fire and men who started other churches came from that place. It had the crowd. It had the crowd of the community. It had the best singers. It had the best worship team.

They grew rapidly and many of the people inside of the church couldn't hear one wrong word about their pastor. It was always my pastor, my pastor, pastor, pastor, pastor, pastor. Then word started to spread about the funny shenanigans going on by the pastor. Nobody believed it. It can never be true. And the gossip spread to social media and eventually the truth was uncovered. That yes, this particular pastor was doing these things, unfaithfulness, drinking, coming to church, drunk to preach, so on and so forth.

And a major split happened. It fragmented the congregation. The people stopped going to church. People just said, no, they can't do this no more. So I'll urge you to be very careful not to fall into that trap where you become soulish about a place and you neglect the spiritual aspect. You're spiritualized to see the things that are going on around you. Don't get me wrong. We need to submit to an authority. And if you are in the church and this is the place that you're going to go serve, having seen it spiritually for what it truly is, based upon the word of God, and judging it from the word of God, then you must serve there and be obedient there and work there and grow that particular area.

I'm not saying don't do all of those things over there. No, do the things that you need to do, but don't get caught up so far that your eyes are blinded. Lastly, I'll use another example.

When I'm looking through all of the notes that I have, I was talking to this friend who went to a particular church and they had split and left and started their own church. And when I asked him, why did you split and leave? He said when they requested to look at the books, because the pastor's wife was handling the books, 10 plus 10 always equaled 4.

And they had to leave. So there are other things that could go on, but this is not about bashing churches. No, this is about... No, this is about... Not being soulishly involved in a church to the point that you're so blinded you can't see the truth. Let's move on. So I don't want to rehash old podcasts and I suggest that you go listen to the old podcast, God's Design for Sex and so on and so forth. Overcoming fear and building faith. Every season in those podcasts has got information that pertains to the spiritual life and the earthly life.

Everything happens first in the spirit because God said it. When God says something it is spirit first and then it manifests here upon the earth. And if God says you will long for your man, now you're here upon the earth, guess what you're doing? You're longing for your man. So it is always spirit first before it is physical. And I don't want to explain this because then the podcast is going to be five hours long and that's not my intention. So I encourage you to go back and listen to the other podcasts, especially Generational Curses.

Listen to the first three. I'm going to do number four when I have the appropriate time for it. So because everything starts in the realm of the spirit first, even Jesus said it, we pray that we do the will of heaven here upon the earth. People, because of God's decree, people are attracted to each other. Now you must understand, attraction is not necessarily a bad thing. God designed us to be attracted to the opposite sex. He designed us that way.

When Adam first saw Eve, Adam came with bones of my bones and flesh of my flesh. That basically said in today's terms, we belong together and you know that I'm right. But they are also ungodly soul ties. And these ungodly soul ties are driven by ungodly forces. You see, Satan plays a role. But his role is not to produce anything. It's to destroy everything. So he himself has his kingdom set up. You find that in the book of Genesis chapter 6, when God destroys the earth with the flood, man's heart was extremely evil.

But we also see that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, the Nephilim, the fallen angels. The fallen angels saw the daughters of men and they created the Nephilim. They were sleeping with the woman because Satan's always trying to corrupt what God has created. He wanted to corrupt the lineage so that Jesus Christ wouldn't be born perfectly. But unfortunately for him, God had other plans and he was not privy to God's plans. And so Satan introduced sexual immorality to corrupt mankind.

But whenever we sin, we open ourselves up to be attacked by an entity from the dark realm. And this entity is usually the spirit of perversion, the spirit of sexual perversion, lust and so on. So like all things, let's start with the godly order. First, God created Adam and Eve and they had children. And he had set a design in place that when a man finds a woman, And he was undertaken into meeting the woman. And until another person, I've been kidnapped one day.

He will take her to be his wife. He's not going to date her. He's not going to have a five-year sex plan with her or a two-year sexual plan with her until marriage. No, that is not of the design of God. That is ungodliness. And for the most part, the church has accepted that these two are together. They are in a sexual relationship that is an ungodly relationship. But the hyper-grace preachers will tell them, oh, well, you know, God's got you and this, that to the third, which is incorrect.

That is not the plan of God. Yes, God created you. Yes, God gave you your emotions. God gave you your feelings. And it is not wrong to have a feeling for the person of the opposite sex. It is not wrong to be attracted to that person when you reach a certain age. That is all in the design of God for your life. Where it becomes an issue is where we transgress now the laws of God, the rules of God, the design of God. And you find, remember the clock analogy, where we've gone so far away from God that we cannot see right from wrong.

So in today's culture and society, it's actually acceptable for a young girl to fall pregnant as a teenager. It is acceptable for a boy to be sleeping with many girls. It is acceptable for children as young as 12 years old to be having abortions and to be dating and to be going out on dates. We've moved so far away from God's reality that we have created a cage for ourselves. We have needs that cannot be met by the current lifestyle that we are living.

And these ungodly soul ties are so bad, you will get a woman who is abused by a man constantly. She's not married to him, but he has manipulated her. He has had sex with her. She has done every perverse thing under the sun she can for him. He has beaten her, her family has spoken to her, friends have spoken to her, pastors have spoken to her, but she keeps running back to this particular person. She has an ungodly soul tie with this person. There is not only an ungodly soul tie that is with this person, but there is a demon or demons that are in play with this particular person.

I'll give you an example of myself. One day, some time back, I was sitting outside and this girl walked past and something inside of me got excited and I was like, my goodness, what is this? So I let her walk past and when she had finished buying what she was buying by the shop, she was walking home and I called her. I had a knowing and I called her, but I was saved. I knew that I still had needed stuff to be cleaned up in my bloodline. And I called her and I spoke with her and I said to her, you have a spiritual issue.

And she broke down and she says, yes, I've been suffering spiritually. This, that to the third, and I don't know what to do. And so I invited her to the cell meetings and we prayed for her. And then she had seen me preaching. I was doing street ministry and while under the word, she was convicted and gave her life to the Lord. And what? There was an ungodly thing that needed to be addressed. How did I know that I would be able to talk to that girl so easily? Now, I didn't say I'm perfect.

I had to get saved. All of us who have got rotten past need the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. No righteous people come to Jesus Christ. But I had to address that issue that was inside of me. And the same issue that was inside of her needed to be addressed. Because when she spoke of her life, her life was in shambles. And everything went. Everything was okay to do. There was no wrong. And eventually she gave her life to the Lord and she got married.

And whether or not she maintained her deliverance and her walk with Christ, that I do not know of. So when you think about your life, and I'm talking about sexually now, how many partners you've been attracted to, you've actually slept with. God hasn't designed you for that purpose. Because these spiritual ties, these sexual connections, these sexual escapades you've been on, they cause spiritual confusion in your life. They cause emotional confusion.

Emotionally, you become damaged emotionally. Because you want to bond with this person, but this person is only using you for their own gain. You have a sexual addiction. That's why you have lust. You sit and for some reason lust comes over you and you just start texting sexual messages and sending pictures of yourself and requesting naked pictures from people. You have a compulsive behavior. You have an obsession with that particular person. Because the Word of God says that your desire will be, as a female, your desire will be for her.

And as a male, based upon your preference, you will chase after her. And now you have a tie in the spiritual realm. You have a tie in the emotional realm. You have a physical tie with this person. And it's created other complexities inside of you. And so now you've got this body count. Okay, you started to be sexually active when you were a teenager. You slept with this person and the relationship was two years and it didn't last. And you slept with that person.

And the relationship was for six months and you slept with that person. It was three months. And then you find your relationships always seem to be shorter and shorter. And when you look at yourself, you might be an attractive person. You might have all of the bells and whistles that a man or woman wants. But they can't stay with you for very long. Because you have now developed the inability to bond. You want to bond. But based upon your past relationships, you have issues.

You have now a heart that is broken. You have now fear of commitment. If the person doesn't show up on time, you are now going hysterical. Your mind starts to run wild with all these things as to what the person is doing. You have your own personal insecurities about how you look. What this means is spiritually you are bonding with all of these people. All of the partners you have in one night stands with is five years, six years. Sexual relationship, two-year sexual relationships that are not working out, you are bonding with them.

You're having a soul tie with them. And these soul ties are not broken. Spiritually, they are recorded in the kingdom of heaven against you. A guy and a girl can have sex and five years later they see each other and they're both single and they start talking to each other and you start having these feelings again for this person and he pushes and you resist and he pushes further and you resist and next thing you know you're back in a sexual relationship.

You're calling it a relationship. You're just having sex. And you think to yourself, how did this happen? I said I'm never going to take him back. Well, you have a soul tie. The spirit that is working the soul tie inside of you is the same spirit that is working the soul tie inside of him. That spirit is triggering you. It is producing lustful feelings inside of you and it's producing lustful feelings inside of him that when the two of you are, wherever you all are, you'll get it on.

That's how soul ties are formed. They are reinforced by spirits. They keep you sexually active. Then your body count now goes from having one partner to two partners to three partners. Now you're sitting with 19 partners. You're sitting with 20 partners. Right all the way up to 50, 60, 70 partners. Yes, I've dealt with people with numbers that are that high. But all you are ever doing is just gratifying your flesh. You're not serving the purposes of God.

So now you're trying to cling. You're trying to cling to this person. But this person doesn't really have the capacity to stay with you. They chased you. They pursued you. You might be an attractive person. And they've slept with you. They've had their share of you. But the spirit inside of them tells them, the spirit of rejection tells them, Right, leave her. Go. Or the spirit of rejection inside of you tells you, leave him. Go. Tell him, no, thank you.

Make things difficult. Start texting all these insecurities. Make him feel inadequate. And then all of a sudden he picks up and leaves. Three months later, the relationship is over. So you find teenagers going crazy over each other after they've slept with this person and then going completely miserable when this person has left them and they cannot understand why this has happened. It's even with adults. To the point where some adults want to commit suicide.

But there's a greater danger to this because your sexuality is not something that remains untouched. Your sexuality has a preference. It's impressionable. So, for example, you meet this guy. And I know I'm using it from a woman's point of view because women are always the victims of these shenanigans. Mainly, most of the time, are always the victims of these shenanigans. And you meet this guy. And you take him to bed with you. And this man is impressive in bed.

Man, he's just impressive. And you're thrilled about his performance. And you say to yourself, Well, no man has ever done this to me before. Wow, you're so good. This, that, to the third. You're thinking to yourself, And this is the guy for me forever and ever. Now you're basing your relationship forever and ever on a guy who's got this master performance in bed. But have you ever asked yourself the question, How did this man get so good in bed? Or how did this woman get so good in bed? Get so good in bed.

Well, there is a start and there's a middle and then there's the end. Your sexual nature could have started with just ordinary sex, but then you met somebody who's got a high count and who slept with like 15, 16, 20 partners. And he now impresses upon you to do these things for him in bed. Will you ask him to do these things for you in bed? What he's basically saying to you is this, do what the girlfriend I had before you did for me. That's what he's saying to you.

Or if he's watched pornography and he's have this imprint inside of his sexuality of that's what he wants to do and so on and so forth, then when he comes to you, now he starts requesting these strange things. And because you want a bond, because you're thinking of the long game, the wedding ring, the white dress, the family, you do these things. But your sexuality is also being imprinted, whether positively or negatively, it's been imprinted. And so you'll start doing these weird things and it gets more weirder and weirder.

And it falls outside of the design of God, outside of the plan of God. But it creates an emotional problem for you. Because now when you're sitting with a group of friends, you'll start comparing men. Oh, he's so big and he's so long and he's 20 minutes and he's one hour. This is not in the design of God. God says you should have one lover. So whatever that lover, that one lover did to you, that would be the best thing under the sun you would have ever experienced.

Because you were committed to one person. Now you have an issue of 20 lovers. Now you have soul ties with these 20 lovers and they bringing all of their lovers to bed with you. So when they're looking at you in your eyes and they start making these requests, and even though you feel uncomfortable, you still do them. You've got to ask yourself the question, where did this person learn all these things from? Now you are bringing other sexual partners into bed with you.

And the word of God says, let not the marriage bed be defiled. He cautions against the sexually immoral person and the adulteress. The word of God says that do not be joined with the prostitute because you'll be one body. If that man has slept with a prostitute, you have slept with a prostitute because he brought that prostitute to bed with him. The spirit of that prostitute is brought to the bed. And then the requests that you are now performing, that you're so good at, that you're proud of your sexuality.

You're unmarried. You're proud of your sexuality. You're busy twerking and showing off and talking about all the things that you can do. These are all ungodly things. These are things not in the design of God. God that didn't design it. The Apostle Paul says that there is a natural use for things. So we're going to read from Romans 1 verse 27, and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burnt in the last one towards another, men with men, working with such, working that which is unseemingly, and receiving in them.

That recompense of their error which was meat. Also we're going to read from 1st Timothy chapter 1 verses 8 to 11. We know that the law is good if one uses it properly. We also know that the law is made not for the righteous but for the lawbreakers and the rebels, the ungodly and the sinful, the unholy and irreligious. For those who kill their fathers and mothers for murderers, for the sexually immoral, those practicing homosexuality, pay careful attention to those practicing homosexuality, for slave traders and liars and perjurers, and for whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine.

I have a question I'd like to ask you. Is the practice of homosexuality only limited to homosexuals? Or can a man and a woman also practice homosexuality? The word of God says that the woman left the natural use of her body for that which was unnatural. God never created you to put your mouth on a man's penis and to suck it to the point that he explodes in your mouth. I'm sorry for being so graphic but this podcast is for adults. God never designed your anus to be used for sex.

The blessing is not in your anus. The natural use of your anus is for excretion. And God never designed you to have a man put his thing in your backside. He just didn't. God didn't create you also to have plastic shoved inside of your vagina or your backside. Or have beads rub up against you. Or the use of vibrators. Or any other thing to be used on you for sexual gratification. God didn't design you for that. That's not your natural use. He equipped a man to do what needs to be done to a woman.

And he's equipped a woman with what a man requires. Over and above that is sexual perversion. So you can then take homosexual acts that homosexuals do and bring it into a heterosexual relationship which God is against. And it doesn't mean because you are married you have a legal right to do anything. No, because the word of God says let not the marriage bed be defiled. There is a standard for the marriage bed. That is heterosexual acts only. And when you do this the spirit of homosexuality comes in.

The spirit of oral sex comes in. You may ask me but now how you know that I've cast these demons out of people. And these demons give off a anything goes vibe. The one was even dancing for me. That's the spirit of homosexuality. The spirit of oral sex was dancing for me. And as we go back to the clock analogy. You are born in a generation that believes that this is all okay. And so you yourself do it because you think it is okay. But praise be to God there is grace.

And God has called us to repent of these things. God has told us no break away. Your needs are unmet. You are trying to be fulfilled by the godly way through ungodliness. You could never be fulfilled that way. And so now you meet the guy for you and... You get married and you are not happy with your sexual life with this person because according to you he is boarding in bed or she is boarding in bed. As your sexual imprinting speaking, that is the layers of all the men, women, the things that you have put into your heart and has accepted as normal, now speaking back to you.

If you didn't guard your eye gates and you were watching pornography, pornography has imprinted on you. If you didn't guard your ear gates and you were listening to sexual music, I want to have sex with you and I want to be a freak and I want to do this and that and you've adopted it as your sayings, then it has imprinted on you. And when you start acting these things out and doing it, your sexual imprinting, which God didn't design to be destroyed in such a manner, is now confused.

And so this perfect person who just loves you and wants to be with you and doesn't have all the shenanigans of the world on their lives is trying to make love to you and you are dissatisfied. You are not satisfied because they're not swinging from the trees as Thomas did or as Harry did or as Michelle did. But anyway, let's move on. It is up to you to decide whether or not you want to continue in that way or if you want to break free. Maybe you can also have a soul tie with an item.

Your mother gave you this thing and you treasured it and there's nothing wrong with treasuring something. But to the point where it becomes idolatry, if somebody touches it or if it breaks and you go off and you are irrational and you go ballistic, then you have a soul tie with it. You need to be able to break your soul tie with it. If you were in witchcraft, the person that was practicing the witchcraft, that taught you the witchcraft, you need to break your soul tie with that person also and renounce the witchcraft that you have done and repent of the witchcraft that you have done.

Also, you could be addicted to animals. You love your dog so much that you buy everything for your dog. You treat your dog like a child. That is a soul tie. That is an ungodly soul tie and it's not in the design of God. It's madness. And you need to repent of it and you need to ask God to break the spirit of the dog, the spirit of the flesh off your life. Even if you've taken an oath, you've got fraternities that you've taken oaths to. You need to break that also.

And other things are actors, musicians. You see that person, you make certain confessions, you listen to their music, you fantasize about such persons. You've got to break that. That is an ungodly soul tie. That was never meant by God for you to fantasize over such particular things. The word of God warns us that we should not be ensnared by these things or defiled by them. These things can defile us. So what now? What happens now? If this message has in any way touched you? Because I know I get pushback, kickback from people who hear this message.

And the message is not in its entirety because there are other podcasts that deal with the same message in a different way. And you can listen to God's design. There are four parts to it. It goes even deeper than this. The first thing you have to acknowledge is that your life is not pleasing to God and if you are continuing it. In this process, so now you acknowledge that, yes, you lived a life that was not pleasing to God, and that you may have exalted men above what God has desired for your life.

There is a spirit called diocese, and it comes into a person's life when they exalt men above Christ Jesus, and they exalt men above the word of God, and they pay reverence to man. And it's a wound. It warned us, he said, do not worship me, I am but a man, because he knew of the spiritual implications. So if you have a soul tied to your pastors in such a manner, then you need to break it. You need to break it of all ungodly prophecies that were prophesied over your life.

You know, you get these people who love to run to this prophet and that prophet, and always looking for a word, give me a word, give me a word, give me a word. But never living the word, they always want the word. You know, you have to break these things up off your life, and you've got to divorce yourself from ungodly prophecies. Then there's also attachments to your denomination. Some people are attached to a certain church denomination. I was born this way, I will die this way.

That's not what Jesus said. He said the truth will set you free. And if you've never searched and pursued for the truth, and you just believed what you were raised up in, and your parents brought you up in, and they had you baptized when you were a baby, and you went to church and Sunday school and all this and that to the other third, then you have to start repenting for it and say, Lord, I want Christ Jesus. I do not want to be standing in the kingdom of heaven one day, and I'm now standing before God, and I've got to say, wait, God, before you open the books, because it's in the book of Revelation, the book of my life is going to be open.

Let me just call this man over here, and you ask God to summon this man over here, and you ask whoever this leader is, tell God you know me, I was in your denomination, and I believed that you were the head of the church, and that as long as I had faith in you and listened to what you say, you were going to get me into the kingdom of heaven. Tell God, tell God, speak with him, and God and Jesus are going to look at each other like, what did Jesus do if this man is your ticket to the kingdom of heaven? So you have to break your ties with that.

You should also break your ties to the altar, because you've been dedicated to an altar. Every church has an altar, and you've been dedicated to an altar. Every denomination has an altar. Yes, they do. And you've got to break yourself from that altar. All ungodly altars that you've been dedicated on, or dedicated to, you break in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. You break all ungodly teachings. You've got to break it off your life. Anything you've seated in your life that was not in the will or the design of God, in the plan of God, who taught Christ Jesus, or the gospel, that too, you break that off.

And then you also deal with dead people, because a lot of the places, now you cremate, and then you've got to take the dead ashes, and they keep the dead ashes open. You can't be having dead ashes in your house. It's not in the design and the plan of God. The dead ashes are supposed to be gone to the ground. And it is your responsibility to repent for such things. Your attachment that you can't let go, or it's still standing on the mantle there, is not in the design of God.

It's got to go. It has to go. Anything that you have also associated yourself with like charms and stuff like that and dream catchers is not of God. You don't even know what a dream catcher is. It says, oh, it catches your dream. Lies of the devil. Lies of the devil. The word of God says do not copy what they do. Not imitate them. Do not copy them. Don't do it. Now you've got these things in your home because it looks cute. And excuse me. When God says you cannot come into the kingdom of heaven because you've made a covenant with the kingdom of darkness, then you're going to be running in hell.

The other one is martial arts. You've got to divorce martial arts. Where does martial arts come from? It's an Eastern thing. It was done in the Eastern times by Buddhist temples and parts of martial arts is opening your third eye and chi. And it's also got to do with yin and yin and yin and darkness and light. That's all has to do with the occult. And it's been introduced into martial arts. Martial arts has its roots in it. Sensing and all of these other things that they've got to use.

They use Reiki in martial arts. The funny thing is when I was thinking about the Karate Kid and Mr. Miyagi slaps his hands and he rubs his hands and he puts it on Daniel's son. That was a form of Reiki. How many of us mimicked that when we were children? That's in Miyagi rubbing hands together to heal. That was a form of Reiki. Reiki. So you have to repent of stuff like that. Yoga is another one. Busy contorting. Every pose is a dedication to a demon and an Eastern demon at that.

So when you see all these yogi masters doing all these poses, they are giving homage to that devil, that demon, the snake pose, the plank, the this, the that. It is all giving homage to the demons and the devils. And if you've done it, you've invited these things in your life. You've got to repent of it. You've got to renounce it. You've got to ask God for forgiveness. And there's no such thing as Christian yoga. There's no such thing as yoga in the church.

There's no such thing as contemplative meditation or contemplative prayer. No. If you meditate, you meditate on the word. That means you take a scripture and you meditate on that word of the Lord. Reveal to me what the scripture says. Tell me what it says, Lord. How can I implement it in my life, Lord? You focus on that scripture. Yes, Lord, I believe it. You have faith for it, so on and so forth. But you don't do what they teach you and make these chants and stuff like that.

It has its roots and connections with demons. The word of God says, do not imitate them. Blood packs. If you've made blood packs, you've got to break the soul tie of the blood pack also. You know, when people are young, they do stupid things. They cut their hands and then they shake hands or they squeeze the blood over a certain pack that they've made and they've come into these covenants. You have to break your soul tie to it, especially if a Ouija board was involved.

And then if you have had a broken marriage and you're now divorced, then you have to break your soul tie to your ex. You've got to break your soul tie to your husband or your ex-wife. You've got to break your soul tie to the ring. You've got to break your soul tie to the dress, to that day, to the vow that you've made. You've got to break your soul tie to it. Now, you will never ever, if this is your first marriage and you were married, you will never ever leave that person.

Jesus Christ says that when we are in heaven and we're appearing before the Lord our God, we will appear with our first marriage partner. So it doesn't matter if you're married seven times, you will stand in heaven with your first marriage partner. But to break the soul tie is to break the bitterness, the hatred, the resentment, the ill feelings, the hurt, the pain, the suffering that you've been through. It's to break all of that. It's to say no more.

I break the tie. I break the spiritual connection between you and I so you can develop and grow to be a better person. And that is the point of soul ties. So in a nutshell, I'm not going to make it any longer than it should be. We're going to do two prayers. These prayers are going to be linked to a website of mine. And on the website, under articles or blogs, you'll find the prayers. So you don't have to stress about writing the prayer down and wondering how you're going to keep up when I start reciting the prayers.

Now, you go to the link, you go onto articles, you go onto the blog. There are two soul tie prayers. One is going to deal with specific, that says your partners, and the other one is going to deal with everything else. The other one is a lot more lengthy, but you must first do with your partners. And this is going to be the difficult part now, depending on your lifestyle. You may have had one or two or three partners in life. That's fine. And I'm not condoning it.

I'm just saying it's easier when I say that's fine, because it's a lot more easier. Or you may have had 30, 40, 50, 60, 70 partners. And you're going to sit and ask yourself, but how am I going to break the soul tie with each and every single partner? You see, you've got to do this prayer individually for each person that you have had sex with, or any form of sexual contact with you break your soul tie. That's how you get completely free from them.

How are you going to say to me, but you know, my body count is so high, how do I remember it? First things first, you can start with the year you started becoming sexually active, or if you were violated by somebody, you can start with that year. And then you can also use locations. So, for example, if you lived in a particular area and you met somebody from another area and you went to that area and you slept with that person, then think of that particular area.

Also think of cars, think of buildings, places, clubs, any other place that can trigger a memory. Schools, school events, parties, one night stands. Use that as a, you make a list, you write it all down, and then you write the location. So, if you were in this particular area, you write that particular area down. If you moved, then you write down, I've moved, and in that area, you start listing the people. And you keep doing this until you've populated your list with all the names that you've had sexual contact with.

And this is, this is of all of boyfriends and girlfriends. You don't leave any out. You break them all, boyfriends and girlfriends. And this is a task for some people. So, then you say, but my account is still high. And you pray to God and you ask Holy Spirit. I've had people say, you know, I've slept with 60, 60, 70 people. The count is that high. I don't really know how to remember them all. And I say to them, ask Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit knows every single person you've had sex with.

Ask the Holy Spirit. And then they come back to me like, I remember this and I remember that one. And I remember that person and I remember that person. And then they start going down the list and their memory starts populating with all of these people. And sometimes even a month later, they can still think of people, oh, I forgot this person. I forgot that person. And as you remember, you just go back to the prayer. You do the prayer and you break the tie with that person.

And you continue this. Now, you may have a spiritual reaction to the things that you're doing. Because you're breaking something in the realm of the spirit. You're breaking a cord in the realm of the spirit with this person that will no longer have access to your emotions, no longer have access to your thoughts. You'll be free from them. You may have a reaction. You may scream. You may feel a particular kind of way. You may cough. You may vomit. You may gag.

Do not swallow if you gag. If you vomit, do not swallow. Spit it out. Let it come out. Just release it. Do not hold back. Do not stop it from coming out. Let it come out. Let it come out. Do not get in the way of your deliverance. If it's coming out like that, let it come out. Now, you might have no reactions. And I always tell a person, you know, if you have no reactions, it's fine. But then choose another day to go back and do it. And do it at least three times on three different days.

You will dedicate those three different days. I had a lady who was proud of herself. Oh, I've had no reactions. Nothing happened to me. And deeper she got into repentance and had godly sorrow for the things that were going on in her life. I think it was the second or the third time she did it. Then it happened. And the spiritual tie started to break because she humbled herself, got off a high horse. And she humbled herself before God and the ties started to break.

Then she started doing it all over and started breaking and started remembering more and more people that she had forgotten about. And this could be through parties, orgies and so on. So, the second prayer is going to deal with yoga. It's going to deal with anything that you've practiced. It was outside of the design of God. And this can extend to things like Kama Sutra. People pick up Kama Sutra books and say, well, you know, let's try these things.

Because that is a dedication to a God and not God in the kingdom of heaven. You've got to repent for serving another God through the practice of this particular form of sex. You've got to repent of it. And then you will break all your sororities, your ties, your clubs, the oaths that you make. The word of God says, man, make no oaths. So, you will make no oaths. You will break those oaths. You will name that club. You will name the oath that you break.

You will renounce it. You will reject it. You will break it. And you will no longer be subjected to it. You will no longer walk with it. You will no longer follow it. Because you will only be following the design of God for your life. So, I'm going to say these two prayers. And once I've said these two prayers, then you will repeat the prayer with the first person you've had on your mind. And whatever oath you want or whatever covenant you've made with anything else that I've mentioned, you will do the second prayer with it.

So I'll lead you with the first prayer just to help guide you through it. And then the second prayer, you can also do it, but then you'll do it by yourself. And you'll do both prayers by yourself on repeats until you have completely finished what you have done. And then after, if you're still having any spiritual issues, you can contact me at kingdomrepentance at gmail.co.za or .com. And not .co.za, but .com. And you can get in touch with me and then I can see how I can assist you spiritually to break free from whatever is still inside of your life.

Also take note, if anybody has proposed to you and the proposal has never went through, you might have had several proposals, but the people just never followed through on those proposals. You need to break the soul ties you have to the proposals, the rings, the engagement rings and all of those promises. You've got to cut them off. Now, each relationship is different. So when you pray, you will know certain things that you should add in the prayer that you would want to break off.

And you would know there may be certain things in the second prayer that may not be applicable to you. And then you will exclude those things from the prayer. But I ask you to pray the entire prayer in its entirety for the first two times at least. And then on the third time, then maybe you can chop and change as you see foot. Let us pray in the name of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Lord, I, that is your full name, and so repent for sidelighting you, Father, and forever having to choose my own way over your plans for my life.

Father, I have sinned against you and heaven, and I ask your forgiveness and mercy and true repentance now as I come home to serve you, my God. Lord Jesus Christ, I take authority over the soul tie between me, that is your full name, and the other person's name. And if you don't know their full name, then the name that you knew them by. And I bind it, and I loose him or her, that is the person who was named, and I break it once and for all. So when you say, I loose him and her, say that person's name.

All in your holy name, Lord Jesus Christ. Father, I renounce all ungodly soul ties, through sex, drunken orgies, unnatural sex, oaths made by me, and the full name of this person. Covenants between them and I. Emotional abuse and manipulation. Physical abuse done toward me, or that person, the full name of that person. Mental abuse done toward me, or I, what I did to them. I loose it from me, your full name, and whoever named them from that person's name.

And I repent of it. I agree that it cannot reform this day, or any day to come, binding Satan, and the ruler spirits, and all evil ministering spirits first, and loosing, that's yourself now, your full name, and binding them of permanently all in Christ Jesus' name. I call yourself, your full name, cleansed from his or her history, and of this defilement done with them, and by them. I break the silver cord that connects us and refuse to be emotionally, spiritually, one.

And again, to whoever person you named that person, in Christ Jesus' name, I am set free in the name of Jesus. Amen. The second prayer is as follows. In the name of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, I renounce all ungodly spiritual ties with anyone who has had homosexual relationships with sexual abuses, with pornography, with any person who has engaged in inappropriate touch, with emotional abuses, physical abuses, with anyone I've had romantic relationships with, with any object of fantasy.

I renounce all ungodly soldiers or spiritual ties with pastors, leaders, name them, other Christians, name them, ungodly prophecies, false churches, name them, denominations, name them, altars, name them, false doctrines, ungodly ministers, employers, name your employers, fellow workers, name them, ungodly intellectuals, name them, teachers, name them, classmates, entertainers, heroes, ungodly angels, ungodly musicals, ungodly musicals, political figures, and gangs, you name them, if it's applicable to you.

I renounce all ungodly spiritual ties with the dead, inanimate objects, trinkets, charms, idols, jewelry, any material object, false gods, saints, psychics, fortune tellers, occult leaders, mediums, astrologers, spiritualists, new age individuals, martial arts, gurus, mantras, chanting, yoga, fraternities, secrets, societies, and sororities, I renounce all ungodly ties with pets, animals, food, books, law enforcement groups, people I have made black packs with military personnel, doctors, nurses, lawyers, acupuncturists, and healers with buildings, land areas, anyone who cursed me because of an accident, anyone who was angry, dishonest people, and foolish people.

I now seal everything I have prayed with the blood of Jesus. I thank you for your throne of mercy and grace that I can boldly approach to ask you for your help in the day of need. In Jesus Christ my Lord and Savior's name. Amen.
