Our text for today comes from Psalm 119, verse 105. Thy word is a lamp and a light unto my feet and a light unto my path. So when I was preparing for this podcast and I was looking at a few scriptures about the creation of light, that is the book of Genesis, chapter 1, verses 1 to 5.

And it reads like this. In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth, and the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light, and there was light. And God saw the light, and it was good. And God divided the light from the darkness, and God called the light day, and the darkness he called night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

So then God decided to drop some things in my spirit regarding these first five verses. And I actually never got to sit down and do the podcast, because I was now stuck with these first five verses. And God was showing me things inside of these verses that I thought I would just share before we move on to the podcast. So the word says, In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And in the notes that I wrote, it says heaven and earth. Right, so God put the spiritual order first.

Take note, the heavens were in order, but when you look at the earth, the second verse says, And the earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And when you look at the earth, God created the earth. Who comes out of the earth? Man comes out of the earth. The earth was like man. There was a foreshadowing in these first five verses of man. Man was like the earth. That was man's nature. Man's nature was darkness. Man was chaotic.

And then it goes on to read, And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Now, look at this. God said, Let there be light. And there was light. And there was light. And there was light. And there was light. And there was light. And there was light. And God saw the light. And when I was looking at this, I was surprised because I saw something that Satan had spoken to Adam and Eve about.

It was the verses and God saw the light and that it was good. So yeah, God is making an observation and he's making a determination and he saw the light and when he saw it, he made a pronouncement over it that it was good. He saw the light was good. And then the Lord said to me, well, this is exactly what Satan was alluding to Adam and Eve. Well, more so to Eve in the garden when he says that if you eat of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. So yeah, God was exercising his knowledge of good and evil.

Then Satan said, you will become like gods. So we can see here in verse three, because, and look at the part, because three is the number of God, God, the Father, God, the Son, God, the Holy Spirit. So God being God is exercising his role. This was also a foreshadowing for the priestly ministry that was to come. It was the priest's job to pronounce what is good and what is bad over Israel. It was the priest's job to pronounce what is clean and what is unclean.

And yeah, verse three, which is God, the Father, God, the Son, God, the Holy Spirit. There is the operation of God, a God in action. This is what Satan said. He said this. He said, for God not knoweth that in the day he is thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and he shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. Now look at verse four. Verse four says, and God saw the light, and it was good, and God divided the light from darkness. Four is the number of dominion, because God gave man dominion over the earth.

That was the priestly ministry to pronounce good from evil. So the next question you have to ask yourself is, what authority was Eve exercising when she was looking at the fruit, and she saw the fruit was good? If Eve, if Adam and Eve didn't have the knowledge of good and evil, what was Eve busy doing? Eve was not equipped to make that call. Now lastly, we go back to verse two. And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep.

This is again foreshadowing of man. God said, let us make man in our image. And the chaos that was inside of man, God said, let us give man our spirit. He blew life into man. And in the darkness that was upon the face, God gave man his word, his command. And this is the foreshadowing that happens in verses one and two to five, that we ultimately see play out. God creates man, gives him the image. God gives him his spirit. God gives him his words. And so I just thought I'd share that with you that caused me not to record the podcast because I was busy stuck getting this information.

There was other things. That was shown to me, but when I had a look at it, they were just blank spaces and I thought I'm not going to dig because I need to go sleep. And these things can take quite a while for the download to be completed. Our text reads, Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. The definitions given for the words light and lamp, the light being that the word is the start of the day for the person who is about to make a journey.

That before the day starts, that you seek out the word as light to guide you through the day so that your actions, your words and the things that you do are guided by God's light. And your parts that you walk are lit because the people who are going to walk with you are going to find the way that you are busy walking. Jesus was the perfect example of this. In John chapter 8 verse 12, the verse reads, There is so much foreshadowing in the first few verses of Genesis.

It was God's desire, it was God's good desire to give us that very same light. 1 John chapter 1 verse 5 reads, This is the message we have heard from him and declare to you, God is light, in him there is no darkness. And John 9 verse 5 says, As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world. And did Jesus not declare that he are the light of the world? It is through you that the word is going to give birth here upon the earth. You are the light of the world.

It is through you that right from wrong will be discerned. You will command what is good to enter into your home and what is bad to stay out. The job is yours, given to you by God. Matthew chapter 5 verse 14 says, Because you are the light of the world, a city that is set on a hill cannot be hid. You cannot shy away from calling out that which is wrong. And you cannot shy away from releasing the word of God, which is light and truth, into the earth so others may follow our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

But you need to have the faith for this to happen. We as Christians should never leave our home unequipped for the day. We should be in the word. We should have the word inside of our hearts. We should be releasing the word. We should be speaking the word. We should be acting out the word. We should be doing the word of God on a daily basis so that we always have the light that is in the word so others can be led to Christ. Psalms 18 verse 28 says, For thou will light my candle.

The Lord my God will enlighten my darkness. This is where you and I come in. As the carriers and the bearers of this light, we need to light others. There's a proverb that says, it's not in the Bible, but there's a proverb that says that a candle doesn't lose anything when it lights another candle. Having the word of God anchored at the center of your heart will give clarity to any decision that you need to make. Your discernment will give clarity to any decision that you need to make. will be a lot more clearer because you will be able to discern good from evil.

And lastly, you will be able to see people for who they are because the word searches the hearts and the intent of man. In a room full of darkness, you as the child of God, the carrier of the light, you are more superior to anyone that is carrying darkness inside of their heart. Your job is to dispel that darkness with the word that has been given to you by Jesus Christ. Darkness must flee when there is light. And you who are the carrier of that light need not be afraid of the darkness.

You are the light. Your authority to be the light comes from God himself. 2 Corinthians 4 verse 6 reads, For God who had commanded the light to shine out of the darkness, had shined it in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. Praise be to God. The word of God in Colossians calls us the saints who are in light. We are the people who have been delivered from the power of darkness. There is a lot of foreshadowing from the book of Genesis chapter 1 to 5.

Word-based living will produce in you a clarity that other people will just never have in their lives. God is light and he is a God of light. Jesus is the light. Jesus is the light. Holy Spirit is light. And you are the light. It is your job as the saint of light to draw others who are in darkness to Christ. And you do it by faith. Meditating on the word, reading the scriptures, anchoring those scriptures as the first go-to for decision making that you have to do in life and make in life.

What does the word say? And when we can rely on the word through meditation and reading and actually exercising the word in allowing it to shape us as we move in our lives, then God will release more and more to you daily so that your ministry, so that your household, so that your finances, your relationships, all are of a better quality. And as God has promised, so you too shall receive it. And one last thing. The only time a person should ever say Jesus takes the wheel or take the wheel is when they're coming from darkness into light.

They're surrendering. But as Christians, that is not something we say. It's not something we confess. My name is Ashton and I'll catch you on the next podcast. God bless you. God bless you.
