

Building Faith, Sowing

Transcript of the God's Design podcast episode

Host: Ashton Campbell

Released: Mon, 17 Oct 2022 12:48:33 GMT · Length: 00:16:41

Source: <https://podcasters.spotify.com/pod/show/dream-interpretation/episodes/Building-Faith--Sowing-e1pcm15>

Automatic transcript. Not a word-perfect manuscript.

Today's sponsor for this podcast is Whisperskincare.com. Integrated bodywork, customized massages to relieve muscle aches and pains, increase your flexibility and range of motions. Other services include facials that is fighting the effects of aging, improve skin's elasticity, lift and sculpt your face, neck and décolleté and much more. Contact Whisperskincare.com. Whisperskincare.com. Helping both male and female improve their lives. And another big shout out goes out to Norman and Tanisha Miller who have sponsored this podcast.

They are from the YouTube channel Repentance 101, The Millers. Good day and welcome to this podcast. I'm your host, Ashley. Today we're going to continue with a series called Building Faith. Today we're going to look at the Word of God as seed. And we're going to see what the Word of God calls itself in the Bible and how we should use the Word of God in the Bible when we are praying and asking God to assist us and help us with our prayers and petitions.

Mark chapter 4 verse 26 and 27 reads, At some point we've all heard the saying that you cannot get oranges from an apple tree. And this is also true with the Word of God in that if you want healing, you go to the Scriptures of Healing because the Scriptures of Healing produces the results that you require with your faith. If you want success within your life or if you want to be a standard of living that is higher than the rest, just the quality of life, I'm not necessarily talking about having material things, but having the things that would make you more happy, then you would sow those particular Scriptures within your heart and you would meditate on those Scriptures by faith and with faith and you will allow those Scriptures then to manifest the things you've been asking God for.

That could be answers to a problem, solutions. That could be peace within your home. That could be a happy life for your kids. You're just praying over and blessing and protecting your children and keeping them safe through prayer. It's like a child who wants to be academically accepted in life. They would then go to school, they would get good grades, they would go on to college or university, they would pass and they would join the academic field.

They sowed that which they wanted inside of them at a young age and now they are reaping the harvest of it. The same is also with kids who don't want to succeed in life. They will sow things inside of them that will make them dysfunctional. They will procrastinate, they will take drugs, they will stop alcohol, experimenting with all the social ills and by the time they've become an adult, they are unable to function in a capacity that keeps them at the same level as others.

Other people who have not participated in what they have. Some may be functioning adults and some may be dysfunctional as an adult. I said in the previous podcast that God cannot be fooled. Galatians chapter 6 verse 7 in the Amplified reads, Do not be deceived and deluded and misled. God will not allow himself to be snared at, that is scorned, disdained, or mocked by mere pretensions or professions or by his precepts being set aside. He inevitably deludes himself who attempts to delude God.

For whatever a man sows, that and that only will he reap. It is interesting to take note that the word says that and that only he will reap. Sometimes people have got negative confessions and professions over their lives and they are surprised and they're stunned when all they ever receive within their lives is negative things happening to them. They make confessions like, oh, well, I know, you know, that just won't happen for me. And when it doesn't happen for them, they are quite stunned that it didn't happen for them.

Well, the word of God says that and that only is what you are going to receive. Your words are very important. You sow your words into the atmosphere. You sow your words into your circumstances. And the word of God says that we overcame the devil with the blood of Jesus and by our confessions, the things we confess are very critical and important because they will keep us defeated or they will keep us victorious. If we look at what Job chapter 4 verse 8 says, Even as I have seen, they that plough iniquity and sow wickedness reap the same.

The same with Genesis chapter 1 verse 12. And the earth brought forth grass and herb yielding seed after its own kind. So you cannot expect something that is not in line with the word of God if you keep speaking negative things over your life. If you keep confessing that the situation will never change and 20, 30 years you're in the same situation, check your confession. Check your lifestyle and see if you are following the commands of God. One of the biggest barriers we face in having things not going our way in life is having a negative attitude.

This negative attitude stands as a stronghold over your life and it influences every thought that you have because people with negative attitudes generally have a negative outlook over every situation in their life. And when bad happens, guess what they say? I knew it was going to happen. But the word of God in 2 Corinthians verse 6 and 7 says, As he has made up in his own mind and purposed in his own heart, not reluctantly or sorrowfully or under compulsion.

For God loves, that is, he takes pleasure in prizes above other things and is unwilling to abandon or to do without a cheerful, that is a joyous, prompt to do it giver, whose heart is in his or her giving. Your attitude will determine what you receive. God sees. That he loves a cheerful giver. He does not take or prizes somebody who is a reluctant and generally is just a miser in their giving. When God speaks of the word as seed, he is speaking to your harvest that you will reap from your sowing.

So we'll just do a little quick sidebar on the issue of sowing. The cheerfulness of your heart reflects and shows God something that you probably won't hear much about in church or if you have, praise be to God. But it shows in your heart that you do not have idolatry. And this idolatry is idolatry over money. When we consider money more important or holding on to money and things more important than the goodness of God and God's giving and sow and his personal sowing to us, then we have a stronghold of idolatry.

And giving is actually a test to see how much idolatry you have inside of you. This was a shocker to me that giving was actually a gauge. And the gauge was to see just how much was inside of me. I remember the rich young ruler when he came to Jesus and Jesus said, sell everything. And yes, there are many sermons around it and many other explanations. But one of the biggest things Jesus was showing this rich young ruler was that you have idolatry within your life.

And the things that you cannot let go of are the things that you place above God. So your desire to follow me wherever I go is not actually a true reflection of what is inside of your heart. You see, that rich young ruler, he should have been the 13th disciple because Jesus said to him, follow me. The rich young ruler was under such tremendous pressure when Jesus told him, sell everything and follow me, that he reverted back to his carnal based ways, that he could not get rid of his idolatry and that he could not follow the word.

He was happy with all of his little traditions that he was doing and he qualified himself by those traditions. And Jesus didn't say anything negative about him. Jesus was quite pleased that he followed the traditions quite successfully. But his true attitude was exposed and the idolatry within his heart was revealed. And he had turned away from the word and went back to his possessions. Psalms 126 verses 5 and 6 reads, I believe the rich young ruler had this opportunity of Psalms 126 where he could have sowed his precious seed.

But he didn't know that he would come again rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him, that he would have saved his own life, that he would have had much more than what he had sowed in the first place. This is a stark comparison to the woman who had her last pennies inside of her pocket and she put it inside of the offering box. Jesus said that woman gave the most. Those last two pennies. Jesus said that woman gave them back to his little recognizing.

The poor man gave the angel to grow. Another loaf of bread, those last two pennies could have bought her oil, but instead she sowed it and she let go of it. And Jesus said to his disciples, that woman gave the most. That she had, the last two that she had, that was more precious than all the money that the men were giving out of the abundance that they had. Again, what has been revealed? Is the idolatry. That which you consider as precious, that which you consider as invaluable to you, that becomes your idolatry.

And Jesus is saying, sow that, so that you may get rid of the idolatry that is within your life and give cheerfully so that when you are measured, you are measured to found, not lacking, but God can bless you in the abundance that you sowed with the God's attitude that you gave with. So Jesus speaks and he says in Mark 10 verse 29 to 30, and Jesus answered and said, verily I say unto you, there is no man that had left house or brethren or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands for my sake and the gospels.

But he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brethren and sisters and mothers and children and lands with persecutions and in the world to come eternal life. 2 Corinthians 9 verse 6 reads, in the amplified version, remember this, he who sows sparingly and grudgingly will also reap sparingly and grudgingly. And he who sows generally, that is, that blessings may come to someone who also reap generously with blessings. And another scripture says, he who doesn't have, it will be taken away from them.

That is perhaps one of the most scariest scriptures I've ever come across in the Bible. Because here is the lie that the scripture is trying to reveal to you, that your life in itself is a seed. And when you sow your life as a seed to God, then you will definitely reap a harvest. Seed is not always material things. Seed is not always money. But seed is your life. And then another thing, you have the word of God. It doesn't cost money. The word of God is free.

You open your scriptures, you meditate on it. You always have something to seed. And that scripture is saying, to the one who always says, I haven't got, even from you, it will be taken. Be careful that we do not lose what God has sown inside of us, which is the sacrifice of his son, which is the word that he has given to us, and which is our life that we can also give in service to him. There is no such thing as a Christian that doesn't have. The very breath that we draw will testify against us that we had life, but we didn't sow it as we should have sown it as the son sowed it, because he was the perfect example for us.

God loves a cheerful giver. And if you don't have finances and all of those other things that people have to sow, sow your life. Sow it daily. Seed it. Help others where you can. God loves a cheerful giver. God will not ignore you. God will see your good deeds. God will see your works. And then he will reply. And he will respond. Because what you do in faith and in service Our Lord, God does not ignore. He replies, we have a God that responds to us, but we must have an attitude of giving and sowing and uprooting and pulling down the idolatries that are still left within our lives.

And just for the record, I am not a promoter of any sort of prosperity gospel. So no, this is not a prosperity gospel message. But this is just a teaching that needs to be taught about giving God's way. My name is Ashton and I'll catch you on the next podcast.