I'm your host, Ashton. Today we're going to continue with the series, Building Faith. In today's podcast, we're going to look at the role of faith in your prayer life and how we should avoid praying in the wrong manner. Culture has taught us various ways to pray, but are the ways that they have taught us, are they rooted in the things of the Word of God? Or are they rooted in the traditions that man has passed down from church leader to parent to child? Today we're going to challenge those views and we're going to learn how to pray properly in faith and learn our position that we should take when we stand or sit to pray.

We can see in the beginning of Genesis chapter 1, when God created time, space and matter, that the Lord God spoke these things into existence. By this we understand that God spoke in faith and whatever he said in faith was created. God operated on a spiritual law, the law of faith. By using his faith, he created everything. God didn't sit there or stand there and wondered, if I speak this, will this come to pass? God already saw the end of it and he spoke it into existence.

God spoke and his power moved. We see in the book of 2 Timothy that God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power. This is the same power that is available to God to create the worlds. For us, this is the power God has given us for our prayers to be effective in the very space and place that we occupy. We will not be confounded if we use the power inside of the word of God through prayer by faith. God has given us the power to transform the space, place that we occupy with by prayer.

There is a big difference in people who pray and people who pray in faith. Many people have a good talk and their prayer life seems like it is the best because they use all the best words. They use all of the best Bible verses. But when you look at their lives, you do not see the manifestation of the things which they have been claiming for years. People can easily be fooled, but God can't be fooled. God responds to faith, not many words. I remember Kenneth Hagin or it was Kenneth Hagin when he spoke about praying for Jesus' sake.

And he said, we don't pray for Jesus' sake. What sake are we talking about? Everything Jesus ever needed to do is done. We pray in Jesus' name. We pray in Jesus' sake. And I remember growing up as a young man and a young boy, that these were the prayers that we were taught to pray. And we were also taught to pray, if it be thy will, O Lord. Well, if we are walking in the will of God, then surely the things we pray to God, back to God, is the will of God.

How can we then say, if it be thy will, O Lord? We need to start cleaning up all of the religious and traditional jargon out of our language and start standing and operating in faith for the things that God has promised us. Too many people are experiencing zero answers to their prayers because of the way they pray. The first principle upon which you begin to open your mouth is faith. The law of faith. When you speak, when that jaw moves, make sure the next thing coming out of your mouth is faith.

It is God's good pleasure to bless you. It is God's desire to bless you. But God responds once again to faith. So there is a big difference between talking and talking the talk. And there is a big difference in praying in faith. We need to examine the next time we pray, what is our position we are taking on when we are releasing those words to God. We stand in a position of faith or are we just saying things because this is what we were taught to do, stand on the word and, well, let's just see what happens.

That is not the mentality and the faith required to receive the things that you want from God. That word boldly in the text means to be among. It means to be in the middle of and it opens up another revelation that God dropped into my spirit when I was looking at that word. That word boldly means to stand in the midst. We go to Matthew chapter 18 and Jesus takes the little boy that was or the child that was on the outside of the men who had come to him inquiring about who was the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

And I always wondered why Jesus did this, but he took the boy and put him in the midst of them. Jesus took the boy and made him come boldly into the ranks of men. See, back then there was a big differentiation between a child and a man. But Jesus took the child and made him boldly stand amongst men, the men of faith. And this is the revelation that God gave me.

That we used to be on the outside as little children looking in, but our true position is to come in the midst of them.

We need to stand shoulder to shoulder with them before the throne of grace because through Christ Jesus, we have been given such righteousness and boldness to come in their ranks to pray and speak before God. Your position should never be the place of despair. Your position should never be the place of despair. Be the place of doubt. Your position should be shoulder to shoulder with the men and women of faith before God. What language then do you communicate to God when you are praying? You are saying to him, I trust you.

You are my defender. You are my provider. You are my shield. I am speaking these things because I know that I can get these things from you because you said you will do it for me. And you don't have to feel ashamed in coming to God for the things God has promised you. The Amplified Version of 1 John 3 verses 21 and 22 reads, And beloved, if our conscience, our hearts do not accuse us, if they do not make us feel guilty and condemn us, we have confidence, complete assurance and boldness before God, and we receive from Him whatever we ask because we watch, obey His orders, observe His suggestions and unctions, follow His plan for us and habitually practice what is pleasing to Him.

Your conscience has been made clean by what Christ Jesus has done. You should not be under any type of condemnation when you come before God to speak with Him. God requires you to have a firm form of confidence in your life when you are standing before Him, for He is ready, willing and able to give to you that which you ask. If, for any reason, you are standing before the Lord and you lack confidence, then there is an issue of fear. And since fear is not a thing that God has given you, then the fear is obviously of the devil that is still in operation within your life, lying to you about God.

This lack of confidence will produce shame and inferiority inside of your life because the fear would have control over what you believe. And we all know that you will experience exactly what you believe. Now, do you believe in faith and experience God's responses or do you speak in fear and have the exact same all of nothing coming right within your life? So what happens if I do have fear? Well, James 1 verses 5 and 6 says, If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God that give it to all men liberally and upbraid it not, and it shall be given him.

But let him ask in faith nothing wavering. For he that wavered is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed. So if you lack, you need to ask God. Ask him for the wisdom. Ask him for what is necessary for you to come back into the position of faith. You cannot have faith and doubt in the same space. There should be no form of duality within your life. Also, be careful of drawing logical conclusions. I remember someone said to me one day when I was standing in faith for a particular thing, well, you need to...

And I said to her, listen, I don't apply logic when I'm standing in faith. The supernatural abilities of God surpasses logic. So we need to be very careful that when we reason within our minds, we reason with the cornality of logic. The logic of the disciples says, there's no shops nearby for us to buy bread to feed the people. The supernatural response of God was, what do you have? So let us stand firm on John 15 verse 7 that says, if you abide in me and my words abide in you, you shall ask what you will and it shall be done unto you.

Your faith is key to the answers that you require in your prayer life. Your faith is key in praying the word back to God and standing on the word of God. Your faith is key that it will produce what you so require. You have to be within the word of God, believing his word, having his word in your heart, meditating on his word daily, adjust your life according to the word, and stand in faith when you ask God, shoulder to shoulder with Abraham, Moses, Noah, and anybody else who's mentioned in the Bible that has faith.

My name is Ashton and I will catch you on the next one.
