Introduction

Good day and welcome to this podcast. I'm your host Ashton. It's been a while since I've dropped a podcast, but I'm back. And today we are going to deal with a very interesting topic, and that is the Wasting Spirit.

Every Christian has that feeling in their lives that something is just not going right with their lives. Sometimes you put the effort, you put the time, but you don't see the results. And this may be a result of this Wasting Spirit. So I want you to stick around and enjoy the next hour or so with me as we delve into what the Spirit is and how we can repent of it and remove it from being in charge of our lives.

And so we read from the book of Isaiah, chapter 54, verse 16:

See, it is I who created the blacksmith, who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work. And it is I who have created the Waster to wreak havoc.

Another version says he is a brother to a man who destroys.

The assignment of the Waster

So when I came across this time-wasting spirit, I was busy doing deliverance. And as we were casting things out, the Wasting Spirit came up and I briefly spoke with it. I said, what is your assignment? And the Wasting Spirit says to waste her time. And working with the Wasting Spirit was the spirit of backwardness. This spirit ensures that whatever she was trying to do turned out to be a waste of her time.

And I'm sure that many of us have gone through this time and time again where it was just a waste of our time and we couldn't figure out why did nothing come to fruition.

The word Waster, Wasting Spirit, in the Strong's means to corrupt. It means to make unseen. It means that is to destroy. It means to mar. They are corruptors. They are wasters. They are spoilers. And so on and so forth. It has to do with rendering something utterly and completely useless, destroyed, no longer in existence.

How it looks in ordinary life

So let's put forth a scenario. You are an intelligent person. And there is something that you've been wanting to do with your life. A business plan. A venture. You know that when you put yourself to this idea, it's going to be successful. So you do all of the work that is required. You do all of the planning, you do all of the research, you get all of the data that is required to show that your projections, your plans, your business plans are all going to work out because you've projected it and you've seen the trends. And so you've dotted your I's and crossed your T's. And you put every effort, every minute of the day and night working on this particular business plan — or it could be something in your work where you know that now is your time. You've spent the years there. You've gone through the mill with the company and this presentation is going to take you to the top.

And on the day you make the presentation, let's say, first within the company, you don't get it. You're the most qualified. You've been there the longest. You understand the systems and you just don't get it. Somebody else got it. And when you compare your work ethic, when you compare your commitment to this person, it doesn't add up. You've wasted all of your time in that company just to be sidelined.

And the same thing with your business. You've gone ahead. You've made the prototype. You've made several prototypes. And now it comes to the presenting phase and stage and nobody's interested. It's like a wall is just blocking them from seeing how you see your product. And for the most part, you cannot figure out why this has happened to you.

Some of us constantly are having setbacks in our lives and we don't understand why me. From a young age, instead of having hand-me-ups, we are always plagued with hand-me-downs. And I think hand-me-up is not correct. It should be pick-me-up. But anyway, you understand where I'm going.

And then we get stuck into the reasoning that is plaguing everybody who has this failure happen in their life. Especially us as Christians, because I really want to deal with the body of Christ. Because we will say things like, oh, well, it is not for me. Maybe the Lord didn't see that I was good enough for it. Or maybe the Lord has got a different plan. Or we make some kind of excuse why it didn't happen. Why there was a delay. Why there was no fruition for all the efforts and the labor that we've made. And we get stuck on these clichés that maybe it's not God's will. And maybe it's not this. And maybe it's not that.

But God says, I have created a waster. And this wasting spirit will have a legal right to come into our lives and completely ruin us if we are not aware that it is in operation. And if we settle for what other people have reasoned in their mind, and we take that reasoning as our reasoning.

God does not give less than we asked

In the Bible, God says that, if you ask for bread, will I give you a stone? What child asks its father for something to eat, and it gets a snake? The Spirit, the Holy Spirit, is the Spirit that leads us to pray for what we need. It makes intercession on our behalf. If God then does not fulfill our desire, well, then it means that God is working to give us something greater than what we have asked for.

There are only a few times in the Bible where you don't get what you ask for. James says, if you consume it on your lust, then you are praying amiss. And in the Scriptures, it says that you will receive more than you can think or ask. So, if there's a thing that you are asking for that you haven't received, then the answer is going to be more than what you thought to ask, or you will just get what you asked for. But you can rest assured that that which you asked God for, that you will receive according to His will, according to your prayers, as the Holy Spirit has made intercession for.

So, it's like saying, Father God, I am asking for a house. And someone comes along and blesses you with a shack. We all know what a shack is. Shack dwellers, people who are living in tin structures. That is not the blessing of God. Because we know our houses, two, three bedrooms, kitchen, lounge, toilet, so on and so forth, hot water, so on and so forth. So, He will never give you less than what you asked for. He will give you what you asked for, or greater than what you asked for. So, remember that, this is crucial. It is only the enemy that will come in to steal, kill and destroy, to subvert the things that you have been working hard to achieve.

Ask for the hidden things

So, when we are trying to find out, we are busy praying, and we want to know why our lives are not in the alignment of God's time, in the alignment of God's will. So, we need to pray and ask God to show us hidden things that may be in operation within our lives. Jeremiah chapter 33 verse 3 says that we need to ask Him for the hidden things. We need to ask so He can show us hidden and secret things.

Some of us, we just pray, Lord, bless me, bless me, bless me, bless me, but we are not asking God, Father, what are the hidden things that are in operation in my life that are cursing my blessings and subverting my victories and causing them and bringing them into failures?

One of the first things we always have to look at is our participation through the years God has given us. What we have been doing, how we have used our lives, if we were into witchcraft, if we've dabbled, if we were into fornication, if we were gambling, and we were just reckless with our spiritual life. Our physical life was reckless that caused harm in our spiritual life. And for these things we need to repent to the Father.

Now I know some people say, I've repented, I've repented, I've repented, but repentance doesn't just stop with you. Repentance has to go to the forefathers also. So if you've repented for yourself, now stop and think, okay, my mother, what was she like? And I know some of us will only want to see the good, but put on the wisdom of God in this matter. And then see if there was anything that she did that was contrary to the Gospel. She may not have even been saved. So you repent on whatever that was done, the iniquities, the transgressions, and the sins. And then you go to your dad also, and you ask, what did my dad do? Was I born out of wedlock? Was I born in wedlock? Were there divorces, cheating, stealing, so on and so forth? And you start repenting on those lines, and you ask for forgiveness for your forefathers.

And we know that repentance works because in Malachi 3 verse 11, God says:

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.

We know that this wasting spirit comes even into your vineyards. It comes even into your finances. It comes into your time. It comes into your efforts, your energy, and it is wasting away all of your works. You sow much, but you reap little, says the Lord. So God created this waster. He is the one that created it. And it's His instrument, it is His tool to confound those who are disobedient to Him.

Where the Waster shows up

And this wasting spirit can waste lives. Have you ever seen a young, talented, let's say the person is a sporting person — soccer, or American football, or cricket, or maybe they're a track and field athlete. And this person has got their future ahead of them. And then the wrong crowd comes along, and they influence this person in the wrong ways. And this person begins to waste away the talent, the years, on addictions, on friends, girlfriends, on a whole lot of silly decisions.

Another one that we would like to look at is young ladies. They've got their whole lives ahead of them. They're young. They are in school. They are getting an education. And then drugs, boyfriend, so on, comes along. And we say, look how this person is wasting their life. Or he or she is wasting their life. And they're going down the wrong path. The Waster Spirit doesn't stop there.

It also moves to your relationships. Why are you sitting five years in a relationship, and you're an adult, and you're employed, and you have everything going for you, but you're not getting married? And that's your desire as a Christian, to get married. But you and this person are in this relationship, busy doing what you're doing, and you're just never getting to the point of marriage. That is a wasting relationship. That is a wasting spirit that is coming.

Or you are a talented musician. You play well, but you're not using your talents where it could benefit the church. It could benefit yourself. It could benefit the community. It's just been wasted away. You are educated. You are bright. And because you do not have the opportunities, all of that has just been wasted away. Where you see others excelling, moving past you, who are less competent than you, but you can't seem to get to the other side, that is also a form of a wasting spirit.

What about when you are sitting in church, and you're not hearing the right message to set you free? You constantly hear about this prosperity gospel, and it's coming, it's coming, it's around the corner. Get ready. Be prepared. And you're there 10 years and 15 years, and you're shelling out and shelling out and shelling out. But your time has been wasted, because you're not hearing correctly. It is your responsibility to hear correctly, so that the things that you hear correctly can work in your life. That is a wasting spirit.

What about a man who says, I prophesy over your life, 1, 2, 3, 4, and you're sitting and waiting for 1, 2, 3, 4, and it never comes to fruition. Year 1, year 2, year 3, and you're collecting all of these prophecies over your life. Instead of them prophesying over your life, they are prophe-lying over your life, wasting you away. You have to be very intelligent, very spiritually attuned, tuned in to what is going on, so that you are not wasted in a church whereby you are being deceived by a wolf.

Another form of being wasted is by witches and warlocks, these people that are around you, but they are witches, and they're cursing you. They can't speak good about you. There's always negativity that they speak about you. You can hear that nothing good ever comes out of their mouths. What about your community that has got these witches inside of them that are praying at night at 12 o'clock, busy dancing and praying and running around naked, speaking curses over the community that you live in, that you are coming under those curses?

Are you in agreement with your silence, or do you pray and you cancel every negative word that has been spoken against you? Every negative prophecy, every negative communication that they are having against you, do you cancel those words over your life? Or are you silent, in which your silence is in agreement with it? That is another way of wasting.

When you come under a witch's spell or a warlock's spell, they're using psychic powers against you. We say that the mind is being controlled. That is a wasting spirit. You must understand that being wasted is much more — better than being ended. Being wasted means you struggle for a longer period of time. Being wasted means that you are fragmented in every area of your life. Relationships, giftings, talents. You could even end up being poor by a wasting spirit. It allows for the enemy to have a longer stay inside of you when you are being wasted.

It's the same with an alcoholic. They drink and drink and drink and drink. And they think they've got control, but eventually they end up wasted on the street. And we can easily judge them and say, oh, you're an alcoholic. And then you find that, no, this person is actually a doctor. Or this person was a neurosurgeon. And because they never checked their drinking, they were slowly being wasted away. So we have to be very careful that we don't allow things to waste away in our lives, to eat at us, to get us to a point where we are throwing things away for no reason.

There's a culture, in some cultures, where if it's broken, you throw it away. The days of calling a repairman are over. Why? Why is the ocean filled with so much waste? That wasting spirit is in operation. Think clearly on these things.

Perhaps one of the best examples is going to a stripper club. I've never... okay. In my old life, I accidentally went to one. I didn't know it was a stripper's club. I thought it was just a bar. But that's the story for another time. But think about going to a stripper's club. You've got your money. You're going to go waste it on something you'll never have. It's a fantasy. It's a form of escape. And you're throwing your money away at it. That is a wasting spirit. You've worked hard for it. And now the whole is just to be seen throwing money at this man or woman, whoever's dancing over there. And you're wasting your money. And you don't understand why you are wasting it. Yes, you have that feeling and that dancing. And you feel special. But there's something else in operation inside of you. No person who earns money the hard way will just throw their money at somebody else. There has to be something in operation to bring that about so easily. And places like that are where wasting spirits operate.

Even in gaming rooms where the guy sits on his gaming and he's buying this fictitious gun and he's buying this fictitious gold and he's buying this fictitious this and that. And it never seems to end. You always need something better. They're wasting you. That spirit is wasting you.

But the will of the Father says:

I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue His work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns. That's Philippians 1 verse 6.

Anything and everything that moves you away onto a different path from the will of the Father, that needs to be dealt with. Because God will call you and draw you time and time again back into repentance to come into His plans that He has for your life. You need to understand, you need to see, you need to recognize that if you are wasting away, that this Wasting Spirit is in operation in your life. And it is going to steal, kill, and destroy everything of yours if possible.

Family, circle, and church

One of the biggest traps you can fall into is when family members waste you. They know how to use you. They know how to take from you. They know how to make you feel guilty. They know how to take everything that you have, your substance, and suck you dry. And then when you can't give anymore, make you feel bad that you cannot give anymore. That is a Wasting Spirit in operation. Yes, it's manipulation, but it's wasting your time where you've got to go and you've got to beg, steal, borrow, and do whatever it takes so that they can be satisfied. And they don't have any consideration for you. As long as you're giving, you're good. But when you don't give, you're bad. That is a Wasting Spirit.

People who have control over your life, who can manipulate you, whom you cannot break away from to be set free, so you can accomplish and achieve the things you need to, because you are being held back by these people, that is also a Wasting Spirit. It's just coming in the form of family.

Sometimes your circle needs to be very small. And sometimes the people in your circle need to be ejected, and only God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit need to be in your circle, so that when you are speaking the things that you want to bring to life, it is with God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, they can bring those things to life within your life. Because if the others know about it, they are already planning to either subvert it from taking place, they are planning to squander the profits of it, they are planning to make their move when things go well for you. Have you ever had people like that? The minute things go well for you, they show up, because they heard of your plans. So keep it close to your heart. Don't always be the one that speaks about every single thing that you are planning. Keep your plans very close. Keep your circle close. If your circle is toxic, keep your circle only to Father God, Son, and Holy Spirit. Remember that.

You must also be careful of being inside of a church that doesn't take care of your spiritual needs. The pastor only knows how to pray for the new church building, but neglects to pray for your next meal, neglects to pray for your job interview, neglects to pray that you will have finances to maybe pay your mortgage, your bond, your car, so on and so forth.

We have to be in a place where we pray in agreement with each other, because if I'm praying something that is contrary to what you need, what good are my prayers? Have I not just wasted your time? And if you are praying for me something that I don't need, you're wasting my time. Where two or three are gathered, I need to be in the company of people who are like-minded to me, who are praying for my needs, and not praying what they think I should have, or what they think I should do, but what my requests are.

Now, if my requests are ungodly and unbiblical, and they pointed that out, praise be to God that I have a circle who can show me that, but if my requests are genuine, I really need stuff in my home. My electricity needs to be paid, water needs to be paid. Can you pray that God will send a supernatural breakthrough for me so that this can take place? And they decide, no, they are going to pray that the rain comes over your life, and that the wind blows in a certain direction, and that there's flowers in the garden bed. No, we then need to tell them, stop praying for me, thank you very much, and don't pray again for me.

Because we need people who are going to pray for the things that we need, and then we are going to need people who are not only going to pray for the things that we need, but the things that the Holy Spirit also shows them that might be a hindrance within our lives. If somebody is praying for, maybe I have an addiction, that is a good prayer, because the Holy Spirit is showing them that I have these things in my life. But if somebody is praying a whole mess, we need to stop praying with such people, and start praying with like-minded people. I know I've labored the point, but I just wanted to get it through.

Another form of a wasting spirit is needy friends, who can't be independent, who need to know your every move, who need to be in everything that you do. Yes, it's good to have friends, and it's good to have company, and it's good to talk, but there's a certain boundary line that needs to be put. If this person is constantly, deeply involved in your business, more than you actually need them to be, and they are heavy on your mind, they are stressing you out, they are wasting you away, they are stealing your healthy emotions, and draining your positive energy that you have inside of you. You need that for yourself, you need that so when a bad day comes along, you've got enough healthy stuff inside of you to weather the storm, so that you are not sitting having an emotional breakdown and a pity party, and you start questioning your life, and questioning God, and questioning all these things, because you are now drained completely. It feels like everything has just been sucked out of you by people around you. Such friends: put a boundary, keep the boundary, or cut off, because they are wasting you.

The devil, suicide, and shortened time

Job stood no chance against the devil when the devil showed up. The devil can also waste you. When God allowed the devil access, Job was wasted. And sometimes through witchcraft, through tarot cards, through selling of souls and doing all the wrong things, we gave the devil access into our lives, and he is wasting our lives. And we need to repent for every door we've opened that allowed the devil to enter in. It's called the doors of darkness, by the way.

What about suicidal thoughts and committing suicide? That's wasting your life. That's where the enemy has a strong foothold inside of you. And a person that commits suicide — now we are not going to talk about the reasoning behind why a person will commit suicide, but we are just going to talk about the whole life expectancy of that person. If that person is 18 years old, or younger than that, their life is wasted. They've cut their life short. That's a wasting spirit. And it also needs to be addressed.

If you're in a family where the men or women die prematurely, in their 30s, in their 40s, in their 50s, and even in their 60s, early 60s, they die prematurely. There is a wasting spirit where there is sickness in the family. And it's always a long battle with this and a long battle with that or, you know, the heart disease and so on and so forth. And my granny had it and this one had it and that one had it. That is a wasting spirit. It's a time-wasting spirit. It's cutting your time short. Same with suicide. It's a time-wasting spirit. It's on a clock and it is cutting your time short.

Some more of the time-wasting spirits, especially in a Christian's life, is if you don't know what you're doing in life. You can't seem to come to a point to make a decision. You are constantly neither here nor there. You're not settled. Everybody around you is settled. You're not settled. You still have dreams of traveling abroad and working in some third world country and you're not settled. And you can't seem to get it going. That's a time-wasting spirit. Wasting away your life.

Okay, so I've spent a lot of time explaining this wasting spirit, this time-wasting spirit that can even work upon the land, that can work inside of your home, that can work upon your talents. It's got a lot of power to work in your life. So we need to break the spirit. And we first need to repent.

Before the prayer

And I want you to pray with me and just pray and trust the Father and believe. And we're going to pray a prayer of repentance. And then we're going to call this spirit out. If you cough, you cough, you gag, you gag, you burp, you burp. If your nose is itchy, your nose is itchy. All you have to do is just replay the parts that caused you or caused the reaction until there's no more reactions. So we're going to do this prayer and we're just going to trust God.

First of all, I want you to forgive anybody and everybody who needs to be forgiven in your life. You might want to pause the podcast and start forgiving. I forgive my mother for not being a good mother to me, my dad for abandoning me, my ex-boyfriend who promised to marry me and didn't, or my ex-girlfriend who cheated with seven other guys. You need to forgive them. Let go. Even people who assaulted you, forgive them, release them from you and hold no judgments. Let them go. Release and let them go.

So when I start to pray, I'm going to say, for example, I, and then when I say I, I'm going to say, say your name, and then you're going to say your name, your full name. If you divorced, say your full name. So if it's Ruth Andrea Peterson, then say it in the full sense of it. I've just made that up. But anyway, when I say I, and then I'm going to say, say your name, you're going to say your full name. If you're a guy, just say the names that you were given, your government names that you were given. Okay, let's trust God.

Now that we've forgiven and we've let the people loose in our lives, we're going to trust God.

Prayer of repentance and deliverance

In the name of God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit, in the name of Jehovah Jireh, Jehovah Nissi, Jehovah Rapha, in the name of Yahweh, in the name of Adonai, God, in the name of Elohim, El Shaddai.

Father God, we come before you, for you are a strong Redeemer. The Lord of hosts is your name. And we give you thanks and praise as you sit on your throne, as God our King, God our Judge, God our Father, God our Friend. Father, we worship you. You are worthy to be worshipped. You are worthy to be praised. Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord.

We also want to call now our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, Yeshua HaMashiach, the Lion of Judah, the Lamb of God. We thank you, Lord Jesus, for emptying yourself out as God into a sinful body, yet you knew no sin, to come and die on the cross and give us victory. We thank you for your resurrection and ascension, and that we are seated with you high above every principality and power, in heavenly places, in you, our Lord and Saviour.

Then we thank the Holy Spirit, welcome Holy Spirit, the Ruach HaKodesh, Doxa Deo, the Spirit of Wisdom, the Spirit of God. We thank you, Holy Spirit, for you are the Spirit of Truth. Thank you for shedding the love of God abroad within our hearts. You are a teacher who teaches us, and you are a counselor who counsels us, and you intercede on our behalf. Father, you are our intercessor, and we thank you, Holy Spirit, for being present.

Now, Holy Spirit, now, Father God, we know that it is the anointing that breaks the yoke, and we come to break the yoke of this wasting spirit off our lives, this time-wasting spirit off our lives. In the name of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, I invoke the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ over the hearer right now, over the body, parts, systems, functions, organs, members, and senses. We cover everything under the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We put on the full armor of God, the armor of light, the armor of righteousness, the helmet of salvation, the breastplate of righteousness, the belt of truth, the sandals of the gospel of peace with which they stand. In the left hand, we pick up the shield of faith with which to quench every fiery dart of the enemy, and in the right hand, we place this sword. I put the same upon myself.

I bind Satan now and the ruling spirit, and every principality, power, ruler of darkness, wicked spirit in high places, all spirits not of the Holy Spirit. And I loose this person now free. I, say your name, hereby repent of all witchcraft that has been done in my life, that I have participated of, horoscopes, predictions. I repent of it. I repent of all spells, all hexes, all vexes, all cursing, bewitchment, all enchantments. I repent of these things before God.

I also repent of my own participation in sexual sins, fantasies, pornography, and whatever I have opened the door to allow the devil in. Father, I ask for forgiveness. I repent of wasting opportunities, where you have blessed me with opportunities, but I squandered them. I repent of this. I repent of gossiping and lying, bearing false witness. I repent of these things, and where blood has been. I repent of the bloodshed, even the pills that prevent pregnancies, or asking someone to take a morning-after pill. I repent of this, Heavenly Father. Anything and everything that was supposed to be a blessing that I subverted through my own ways, I repent of it.

I hereby also, through the bloodline of my mother, name your mother. Through the bloodline of my dad, name your dad. And if you don't know who your dad is, Father God, you know who their parents are, and you know them by name. So we call them through the great cloud of witnesses to come and stand before you, Heavenly Father, as witnesses for their children.

We hereby renounce, reject, any form of inherited curses, any form of bewitchment, any form of enchantments, any form of time-wasting spirits, land-wasting spirits, any form of talent-wasting spirits, any form of a wasting spirit that has come through them, through their own iniquities, transgressions, and sins. And we go back now to our grandparents, whom you know who they are, and we repent and renounce any form of curses, any form of iniquities, sins, transgressions, that have come through them, and through our parents, through to us, that are locking and blocking and binding us in this time-wasting spirit. Father God, we repent of it, we renounce it, going back four generations, and then we go back further, all the way to our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ's timeline, and all the way back to Moses, and all the way back to Noah, and all the way back to Adam and Eve.

Father, against you and heaven have I sinned, and my generations before me sinned. I repent now, Lord. And I ask the Lord Jesus Christ to blot out the handwritten ordinances that are against me. I put these curses on the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ, every time-wasting curse, every curse upon my hands, every curse upon my feet, upon my life, upon my talents, upon my finances, I put on the cross of the Lord Jesus Christ. And every sin, I put under the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ now. Father, I am the redeemed of the Lord, and I say so.

You may pause now — not pause the video, but just stay in silence.

Heavenly Father, you've heard the confession of your children, and we ask right now, Heavenly Father, that this wasting spirit be removed from them. I command the wasting spirit in the name of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit to come out of this person right now. The Lord God rebuke you, come out of it right now. The Lord God restore that which has been broken and wasted by you, come out right now. The Lord God rebuke you, I said come out of this person right now. Out of their hands, out of their mind, out of their body, come out of them right now. If you're in the form of addiction, come out of them right now. Whatever addiction, we break right now, the Lord God rebuke you, come out of them right now. I command you to lift up and loose. I said go to the pit. We break your power. Every clock, every ungodly clock that is in operation right now, we smash this clock in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I said come out of this person right now. We smash all ungodly time clocks of the waster upon finances. Come out of this person right now. Come out of this person right now. I said lift up and loose. I said come out of this person in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

All ungodly time clocks within their relationships, we smash right now in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Ungodly time clocks to waste their time, their destinies, we smash right now in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. We speak the times that are in God's hands right now. For the plans that the Lord has for us, we speak those times and confess those times over their lives. They will testify of the Lord Jesus Christ. They will be a blessing to others. They will have much. Whatever they set their hands to, they will do. No wasting spirit will destroy the efforts that they have put in. Whatever God blesses them with, they will keep. And they will grow. And they will bless others with. The Lord God multiplied them and gave them a double portion.

We break this wasting spirit right now. Now, get up, lift up and loose and leave in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, never to return. And we shut the door of darkness behind you as you leave. We invoke the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ right now over us. We invoke the Holy Spirit, the Ruach, fire of God, the consuming fire of God to destroy the destroyer right now. In the infernal flames, in the flames of the Father. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. We are the redeemed of the Lord and we say so. In Jesus' mighty name we pray. Thank you, Father God. Amen.

I hope this podcast has blessed you. I hope it has opened your eyes to see that, yes, there are spirits in operation. And they work with time clocks and ungodly time clocks. I don't have the time to explain the time clocks because then the podcast will just shoot past the normal time that I wanted it to be. But I hope God blesses you. I know He has blessed you. I know that you will see things in a different light. That you will repent of it. And that you will be set free in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

God bless you. My name is Ashton Campbell. And I will catch you in the next podcast. Don't forget to subscribe to my channel. And don't forget to share this podcast with others. In Jesus' name we pray and we ask. Amen.
