

Why is Bloodline Repentance blessed by God according to the Bible?

Scripture warrant for the Core Prayer and Rounds 1–3 — how God attaches mercy to a line, not only to a moment.

God blesses bloodline repentance because He already attached His mercy, His covenant, His Spirit, and the Blood of Jesus to a people and their children — not only to a private moment. The Core Prayer and Rounds 1–3 do not invent a new religion. They speak what Scripture already commands: confess, including the iniquity of the fathers; forgive as you have been forgiven; remit rather than retain; lay the life and the line on His altar; let the Blood cover the record and speak instead.

Round 1 agrees “I,” then lays mother’s side and father’s side all the way back to Adam. Round 2 speaks “WE” for the 2nd–5th generations and lays the bloodline on the altar. Round 3 speaks “WE” for the 6th–20th. That movement follows the Bible’s own range: iniquity visited to the third and fourth, and mercy kept for thousands of generations of them that love Him.

This study lists how each prayer line is underwritten, then lists connecting passages from Genesis through Revelation. It is a warrant list, not a claim that every verse is only about family curses. Each entry is here because it bears on representative confession, copied masters, records, children, covenant, remission, or the accuser’s case.

How God blesses it

- He names mercy to children and to thousands of generations. Ex 20:5-6; Ex 34:6-7; Deut 7:9; Ps 103:17-18; Luke 1:50

- He cuts covenant with those standing here and those not here this day. Deut 29:14-15; Acts 2:39
- He sends the Spirit for remission, and attaches the promise to children and the afar off. John 20:21-23; Acts 2:38-40
- He Himself contends and saves the children from the mighty. Isa 49:24-26; Isa 59:21; Col 2:14-15
- He turns fathers’ hearts to children so the land is not struck. Mal 4:5-6; Luke 1:17

I. How the prayers connect

Each block is a line (or cluster of lines) from the spoken prayers. The references are the biblical reason that line is not extra-biblical.

These prayers are to be spoken, not simply read silently.

All rounds

Bloodline repentance is confession. A record is answered with the mouth, not only with private agreement.

Reference	Connection
Rom 10:9-10	Believe in the heart and confess with the mouth.
Prov 28:13	He who covers sins does not prosper; confession and forsaking find mercy.
Lev 5:5	When guilty, confess the sin.
Lev 26:40	Confess iniquity and the iniquity of the fathers.
Josh 7:19	Give glory to God and make confession.
Ps 32:5	I acknowledged my sin; You forgave.
Ps 51:3-4	My sin is ever before me; against You I have sinned.
Dan 9:4-5	Daniel prayed and made confession with his mouth.
Neh 1:6-7	Confess the sins of the children of Israel.
Matt 10:32	Confess Christ before men.
1 John 1:9	If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive.
Rev 12:11	They overcame by the blood and by the word of their testimony.

On behalf of the (2nd–5th / 6th–20th) generation... I agree WE are guilty.

Round 2 and Round 3 (Round 1 speaks I, then lays both sides back to Adam)

God receives representative confession. A living voice may agree with guilt the line carried, without pretending the dead can be forced to believe.

Reference	Connection
Lev 26:40-42	Confess the iniquity of the fathers; then God remembers the covenant.
Ex 20:5-6	Iniquity visited; mercy to thousands who love Him.
Ex 34:6-7	Forgiving iniquity, transgression, and sin; visiting iniquity of fathers.
Num 14:18-19	Moses pleads the same character of God over a whole people.
Deut 29:14-15	Covenant with him who stands here and with him who is not here.
Josh 7:1, 10-26	Achan's house bears a corporate record until it is judged.

Neh 1:6-9	I and my father's house have sinned.

Reference	Connection
Neh 9:2-3, 33-38	Seed of Israel confess iniquities of their fathers.

Acts 2:38-39	The promise is to you, your children, and all afar off.
Rom 5:12-19	One man, many made sinners; one Man, many made righteous.

I agree that WE made it more important than God, loved it more than God, and preferred it instead of God.

All rounds

That is the Bible's definition of idolatry. The prayer names the topic as a rival god, not a personality quirk.

Reference	Connection
Ex 20:3-5	No other gods; no graven image; do not bow or serve.
Deut 6:4-5	Love the LORD with all heart, soul, and might.
Deut 8:19	If you go after other gods, you perish.

Col 3:5	Covetousness is idolatry.
Jas 4:4	Friendship with the world is enmity with God.
1 John 5:21	Keep yourselves from idols.

For this idolatry, adultery, and rebellion, I lay my life / my bloodline on the altar of God.

All rounds (Round 2 names the bloodline on the altar)

Spiritual unfaithfulness is adultery. Rebellion is witchcraft. The altar is where a life or a line is given back to God instead of to the rival master.

Reference	Connection
Gen 22:9-18	Abraham lays Isaac on the altar; the seed is blessed.
Ex 20:24-26	Altar of the LORD; His name remembered.

Jas 4:4-8	Adulterers; submit, resist, draw near.
Heb 13:10-15	We have an altar; offer praise and doing good.

I recognize that this is happening because of agreements, blood covenants, blood contracts, hexes, vexes, interaction with the blood, and satanic ritual agreements... because of [fruit] with the parent [Principality].

All rounds

Scripture treats covenants, blood, and spiritual rulers as legal. A copied master is not only a habit; it is often a claim.

Heb 2:14-15	Destroy him that had the power of death; deliver from bondage.
Rev 12:9-11	Dragon, accuser; overcome by the blood.

For the accusation of this record, I lay down the 2nd–5th / 6th–20th generations (Round 1: mother's side, father's side, all the way back to Adam).

All rounds

The accusation is against a record in a line. Torah already names visitation to the third and fourth, and mercy far beyond that. The prayers go to Adam because that is where the first record entered the race.

1 Cor 15:21-22, 45-49	In Adam all die; in Christ all made alive.
Heb 7:9-10	Levi paid tithes in Abraham — a line present in the ancestor.

I refuse to blame anyone anymore... I take accountability for what my bloodline copied... AND FORGIVE everyone who taught us.

All rounds

Blame keeps the record open. Accountability and forgiveness close it. The living generation answers for what it copied, without making the teachers into an excuse.

Reference	Connection

1 Pet 2:23-24	He committed Himself to Him that judges righteously.

If people from other bloodlines have repented and we don't know about it, I STILL... forgive every way we remembered people the way Jesus doesn't.

Round 2 / Round 3 (Round 1: 'If they have repented and I don't know about it')

You will not retain a case by ignorance. Jesus does not keep a memory as an accusation once the Father has received repentance.

Representing my bloodline, I forgive them for not capturing every vain imagination and bringing it to Jesus as given in 2 Corinthians 10:3-5.

Round 3 (explicit); implied in Round 1–2 memory work

Copied masters live in thought-suggestions. The bloodline's failure to take thoughts captive is itself confessed and forgiven.

I ask You Father to forgive my bloodline since I have forgiven other bloodlines. I ask You to judge between me and them so that the judgment is pure and holy.

I also ask for a spiritual decree of divorce from this record. We don't have room in my bloodline for unconfessed records.

I cast off of my head the crown of iniquity that had been attached to my head. You are banned from my life, my mind, my heart, and my body.

All rounds

Iniquity sat on the head as a claim of rule. Aaron's plate bore iniquity on the forehead until atonement. The prayers refuse that crown and shut the gates of life, mind, heart, and body.
